The Flame

From the Pastor's Study:

“Now when Daniel learned that the decree had been published, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened toward Jerusalem. Three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed, giving thanks to God, just as he had done before.” -Daniel 6:10

August is upon us, and I must admit that I am excited about it. Personally, I am excited because we have celebrated several milestones in our family over the course of the last several weeks. Our oldest daughter Sydney has stepped into the new world of being a 1st Grader and will be a 6 year old this month. Molly is talking more and more, and running around faster than ever! I celebrated my 37th year around the sun, and Julie and I had our 11-year anniversary. The months of July/August have naturally become a festive and celebratory time for our family, and a season of milestones.

I know that many of us “celebrate” during this time of year because August marks the beginning of something new. Educators, students, and parents often use August to mark a rite of passage to the next school grade, or the next group of students. Some among us may be starting a new job or career or beginning University classes. Some of us may even recognize that August kicks off the downhill slide to the festive season of fall.

Just as August often provides milestones to recognize, it also inevitably provides the opportunity to fully get back in the swing of things after summer. This means fulfilling responsibilities for loved ones and friends, like doctors’ visits, attending games, running errands, and getting folks to and from school, or practices. No matter your age, August promises to have a more complex schedule with more responsibility. It is a fun but equally busy time.

As we shift into a busier season I want to invite all of you to strive to carve away some time for something simple. I want to invite you to try to talk with God everyday. An ancient Old Testament prayer practice that Jesus would have participated in was to pray three times a day: Morning, Noon, and Evening. As the authors of Common Prayer: A Liturgy for Ordinary Radicals, say, “The daily cycle of prayer—morning, midday, and evening—is like a heartbeat for the global church, passing from one time zone to the next each day, so that we as a people can, as the apostle Paul taught us, pray without ceasing.”

As we move into August with all its natural complexities and milestones, I want to invite you to give yourself the gift of striving to pray as Daniel does. I want to invite you to check in with God three times a day. This could mean praying for others, praying through the Psalms, offering the Lord’s Prayer, doing an Upper Room Devotional, or even using a breviary. (A breviary is a book for guided prayer. Some great ones that I have used in the past are: Guide to Prayer by Upper Room Books, The Divine Hours by Phyllis Tickle, The Book of Common Prayer, Common Prayer for Ordinary Radicals, and Christian Prayer: The Liturgy of the Hours.)

May we allow daily prayer to simply nourish our hearts, minds, and bodies even as things promise to get busier as fall approaches. I hope that you will find ways to cultivate this simple practice in your own devotional life this month.

See you around the Church!

Chris

Sue's News - August 2023

WOW! I just looked through our first rough draft of the August newsletter! It is full of announcements of exciting things that will be coming up in the next few weeks. Some are new. Some are continuations of things that began before a short summer break. There is something for everyone. If you like Bible studies, the Wednesday morning study of the book of Acts will be interesting. Several people attended the book of Mark study in the spring. You can come to the study at 10:30 and then have the opportunity to observe Holy Communion at noon. When you add these opportunities to the Wednesday night activities, you could almost be here all through the day and evening on Wednesdays. I like to say that we doze but we don't close. This will be close to the truth on Wednesdays during the fall! How exciting. We met about a week ago to plan the fall IGNITE program for our children in grades K-5. Right now our plan is to have our kickoff on Wednesday night September 6 at 6 PM. This will add another exciting piece to our Wednesday activities for the fall.

Last Wednesday at choir practice we took some time to look at our Christmas cantata. We are excited to get started on this very special cantata, and we would love for you to join us on Wednesdays at 6 PM in the sanctuary. Call and ask me questions or just show up to practice! We are a faithful and fun group.

Make sure to keep your newsletter close during the month of August and watch for upcoming announcements through emails, texts and website announcements. We are going to be busy!

Sue

The Sunday Bible Fellowship - Ten Men of the Bible

We meet after services most Sundays and enjoy lunch provided by volunteer cooks. Each lesson is a capsule of scripture, thoughtful discussion and a story from the Bible from a book written by Max Lucado. The writing style is both humorous and thought provoking providing a glimpse of what it would look like in the modern day. We share this time together to talk about the lesson as well as what is happening in the world around us until about 1:15 p.m.

Anyone is welcome any Sunday we meet. You don't have to come every session. We don't gather on holiday Sundays or the third Sunday.

You don't have to read the book but it will help your understanding in our discussions. (I will order extra books.) We go through a summary of the lesson and choose questions to discuss as we go through the five days of learning more about the lesson the Lord has given us in scripture. We find out about ties from the Old and New Testaments.

"The men of the Bible were not perfect by any means: Noah drank too much. Job thought he knew more than God. Moses murdered a man. David committed adultery. Joseph risked his reputation. Matthew was a tax collector. Lazarus...died. Peter betrayed Christ. Paul killed Jesus' followers. We find our hopes and struggles in the pages of the Bible that tell their stories."

Marlee will order those books ($15) if you are interested in joining us. If you want a book ordered or have any questions, please contact Marlee Tierce – mtierce@aol.com or call 423-884-2196.

Mark your calendars for Family Night Supper!

On Wednesday, August 23rd at 6:00 p.m. we will be having our monthly family night supper in the fellowship hall, and we want to invite you to bring your favorite summer dish! This could be casseroles, deviled eggs, vegetables, fruit, bread, meat loaf, chicken, etc. Every time we have a family night supper it is a wonderful time to fellowship and break bread together and our dinner on August 23rd will be no different! Please join us!

Community Café Opportunity for 1st United Methodist Church, Madisonville

Our church has a unique opportunity to become the lead Church for the community Café in Madisonville. The Presbyterian Church is having to step down from that position. Our church has been a host for that great service to the community since its inception 10 years ago. Pastor Chris, Jan and I will be speaking on this issue in the next few weeks and hoping to get things set up so that it can transition from one church to the other with no stoppage of service. Be thinking of ways you may be able to help bring this about with no stoppage of service. This needs to happen for our church to serve from our kitchen starting Tuesday September 5th 2023.

Also This Month...

Our church will be hosting the Community Café Tuesday August 29th. We will let you know what is needed as soon as we know the entree. Thanks for all your help.

Love,

Dora & Jan

Blessing of the Backpacks on August 6th

On Sunday, August 6th, we ask our children and youth as well as our teachers and educators to bring your school backpacks/work bags to church with you for a special blessing as we all look forward to returning to school! The Blessing of the Backpacks has become a wonderful tradition at our church as we seek to remind our students and teachers that God is with them wherever they go, and that everything inside their backpacks can be a means to serve and bless our neighbors. We hope you can join us!

gust 2023 until after our denomination's General Conference meeting. This will be a time of prayer, exploration, discernment, study, sharing, and discussion. Rev. Chris Black will be hosting several events and opportunities for shared dialogue around issues that he anticipates will come up at the next General Conference. All of the upcoming events will be informative in nature, but will also encourage discussion from all participants.

Beginning in September, Rev. Chris Black will offer a six week class called "Conversations," which will focus on the divisions that are currently present in the United Methodist Church. Each week the class will put prominent conservative and progressive voices from within and outside the UMC in dialogue with each other. The hope is that these conversations will naturally create opportunities for dialogue amongst our own community members. Later in the fall, our congregation will also have the opportunity to participate in a couple of straw polls in the coming months, as well as listening posts, and community wide discussions.

Pastor's Weekly Bible Study Returns in August for an Acts Adventure!

On Wednesday, August 9th through December 20th at 10:30 a.m. in the Sanctuary the Rev. Chris Black will be hosting a weekly home style Bible study class. During this fall "semester" Pastor Chris will offer an in-depth exploration of the Book of Acts. It doesn't matter if you're new to the Christian faith, or have studied the Bible for years you are welcome to attend. If you have any questions about the upcoming class please email Pastor Chris at cblack@firstumcmadisonville.org

What's Going on in the UMC? Let's have a watch party!

On Wednesday, August 16th at 7:00 p.m. we will have a community wide "Watch Party," and discussion. This event will be for all those who are interested in or who care about our church. We will be watching two non-partisan informational videos together about the state of the UMC and the current conflicts within the denomination. The purpose of this event will be for our community to get informed about what is going on in the denomination and to talk about it together. Popcorn and soda will be offered, but you will have to bring your own movie candy if you prefer that. We hope you will make plans to join us on August 16th!

New Opportunities for Dialogue

In anticipation of the United Methodist Church's General Conference beginning on April 23rd, 2024, our congregation will enter a season of intentional dialogue that will extend from Au-

Mid-Week Communion Coming to 1st UMC

Beginning on Wednesday, August 23rd at Noon First UMC will begin having a weekly midweek communion service in the Sanctuary. All are welcome to participate in this brief and casual worship service led by Rev. Chris Black. This 20-30 minute worship opportunity consists of prayer, scripture readings, confession, and a time of communion. Our time together promises to be a wonderful mid-week reconnection time of renewal and reflection. All are welcome to participate, even if you're on your lunch break!

Musings from Marlee:

Summer is not over...

... but the play days of summer have dwindled. School is back in session. The summer heat is still a part of each day, but now instead of finding shade, cooling off in a pool or lake, and sipping iced beverages, many of our group are heading into classrooms longing for the chance to be back outside.

Routines change. It is so easy to be frustrated, bothered, anxious, even overwhelmed with the expectations of the next school year. Students complain about having to sit all day doing work and then coming home to more responsibilities. Teachers feel the pressure of expectations from parents, students, and administration. Parents try to figure out when they can get it all done so that their children have a successful year. Anyone interacting with any of these people need to remember the change of temperament this causes.

Stress sneaks into the excitement of a new year of hoping for better, learning expectations, and interacting with friends. Rules flourish. Questions flourish. Answers seem to shorten. "How was school today?" "Fine." "Okay." "Whew!"

1 Thessalonians 5:11 Message translation: "So speaking encouraging words to one another. Build up hope so you'll all be together in this, no one left out, no one left behind. I know you're already doing this; just keep on doing it."

What if you begin the day with a short sentence of prayer that each of you chime in together? While everyone is trying to find everything needed to get out the door on time, just pause and repeat your family prayer for the new year. It can be as short as, "Dear Lord, Help us through this day to become the best we can be." You might need to repeat it a couple of times as the day progresses, but at the end of the day you can share, "This is what I did that helped me to become better." "This is where I saw the Lord make a difference in my day."

At night encourage a prayer of thanks for all of the workers in school to get the rest they need so that tomorrow will be even better. Pray for those who interact with school whether you know their names or not. Ask your children to identify particular people that might need an uplifting prayer. Instill prayer into the day and see what a difference it makes. Isaiah 4:29-31

Community Assistance Fund & Blessing Box - an Appeal

With your support, this year our Community Assistance Fund has been able to provide funding for food, utilities, housing, transportation, & health care, and our Blessing Box has provided a great deal of direct food and hygiene supplies to those in our community who are less fortunate. With the approach of Fall, the coffers and cupboards are growing bare, and we have had to turn people away. Please consider making a contribution or providing food to these two important missions of our church.
