

Château Roquetaillade la Grange - white Graves Guignard Brothers

For four centuries, the passion for wine enlivens the Guignard family. Pierre and Jean Guignard first, self-taught, hardworking and visionary purposes, who, in the 60's restored the Estate and separated it from the former vineyard. The sons of Pierre took over the family business in 1996: Dominique, Agricultural Engineer, is the Chairman of the Union of Graves and he is the creator of the Route des Vins de Bordeaux, Sauternes and Graves; Bruno, the Oenologist, has comprehensive experience in prestigious areas and joined the family property in 1992; Pascal, Quality Engineer, joined his brothers in 1996 to rule the entire management of the Properties. Guignard Brothers, it is above all a human adventure. All together, they modernized the Estate and now run the most beautiful set of Graves region, the birthplace of Bordeaux wines. Their philosophy is respect for the environment through sustainable farming.

60 % Semillon 20% Sauvignon 20% Muscadelle

Vineyard of Clément V, 1st Catholic Pope going in Avignon at the 14th Century. Gravely soil overlooking the Brion Valley.

12 hours skin maceration before fermentation / all operations are made with CO2

On fine lees.

This outstanding white Graves has a complex bouquet of minerals and citrus notes of grapefruit, orange and quince. Aging on its fine lees shows in the extra complexity and concentration, leaving a sensation of pure pleasure.

Perfect complement to seafood and white meat dishes (poultry, veal..). It is also enjoyable as an aperitif.
