

Domaine de Suremain Red Mercury Domaine de Suremain

In the heart of Burgundy, Domaine de Suremain is located in the center of the village of Mercurey at the Château du Bourgneuf. The Mercurey appellation is the most renowned of the Cote Chalonnaise, and one of the most important appellations of Burgundy. Mercurey is named after the messenger of the Gods of the Roman mythology, Mercury because the Romans have dedicated a temple said to be built on the site of its church.

100 % Pinot Noir

On clay and limestone soils. Relatively deep soil. The vines are located around the Domaine. Vines : 7 ha

The Harvest is done by hand. Vinification is carried out individually for each cru in open barrels of 50 to 100 hl with a complete destemming. punching of the cap is done each morning and evening. The fermentation time is 8 days for the Mercurey

Aged in oak barrels (10 à 15 % in new barrel). Bottling 18 months after the harvest.

A more flexible vinification allows the wine to express itself quite rapidly while keeping the balance of Pinot Noir and combining a good quality/price ratio.

Open our Mercurey for your joyful and festive meals.
