

Les Hauts d'Acantalys White Lirac Cave de Tavel

The Cave des vigneronns de Tavel is in the purest Provençal style. It was built in 1937 when Tavel wines were labelled AOC. It is to date the only winery to be opened by a President of the Republic – Albert Lebrun in 1938. Cave de Tavel produces half of the Tavel AOC wines, as well as Lirac, Côtes-du-Rhône Villages and Côtes-du-Rhône. There are 140 producers, all involved in the day-to-day life of the winery and have their say in the investment decisions for making wines which frequently win medals and are regularly mentioned in wine guides.

White Grenache (58%) - Clairette (28%) - Bourboulenc (14%)

The Cave des Vignerons de Tavel is in the Rhone Valley 15km from Avignon and Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Its geographical position in the heart of the Tavel vineyards on the edge of the village is an indication of its deep local roots. The Lirac vineyards are in the localities of Lirac, St Laurent des Arbres and Roquemaure. Limestone and smooth pebbles. Vines : 30 years - Yield : 40 hl/ha -

Each grape is vinified separately because they ripen at different times. Skin maceration, pressing, juice collected by dripping. Temperature control during the alcoholic fermentation.

Barrel-matured for about 4 months with some "batonnage"

Eye: Bright with golden lights, mineral appearance. Nose: aromas of citrus fruit, warm spices and broom. Mouth: substantial, roasted and vanilla taste.

Perfect with fish, fried prawns, "bouillabaisse", grilled poultry and dry cheese.
