Learn about the Mitsuo Aoki Collections and the work to preserve and make them accessible to the public. Demonstrations on how to access the digitized written papers of unpublished talks, sermons, articles, lectures and yet unseen videos of Rev. Aoki through the on-line portals of the University Archives of UH Mānoa and ‘Ulu‘ulu: The Henry Ku‘ualoha Giugni Moving Image Archive of Hawai‘i, UH-West O‘ahu.

Theologian, minister, college professor and founder of the UH Department of Religion for over sixty years the Rev. Dr. Aoki counseled and taught others how to experience death not merely as an end, but as a vital, inseparable part of life. A Living Treasure of Hawai‘i, Aoki was instrumental in establishing Hospice Hawai‘i and received their Lifetime Achievement Award and the national Jefferson Award for his exemplary career of religious and academic leadership and volunteer services to those experiencing terminal illness.
