THE CHAIRMAN

STEVE LEWIS

WELCOME again everyone to the Veho Community Stadium, where emotions are still running high after those truly heart-warming, events here on Saturday.

There can be no doubt that anyone who witnessed what happened at the final whistle of that win against Willand Rovers will, firstly, never forget the occasion, and secondly, be lying if they said they did not have a tear in their eye as Jordan's No11 shirt was carried round the touchline by his applauding team-mates.

Every one of those players went out there utterly determined to win the game as a morale-booster not only for Jordan, but also for our physio Reighan Taylor, who is still suffering serious trauma from the events she witnessed that terrible night on the motorway ten days ago.

With us in the stand on Saturday were all of Jordan's close family, including his partner Michaela and his father, John Chiedozie, the legendary former Spurs winger - also Reighan's mother was with us.

The dignity they showed in view of the stressful time they are all going through was humbling. Michaela had asked if they could all be with us on Saturday to thank Bashley FC for the club's support at such a difficult time.

There was never any question about them being able to count on every ounce of backing from everyone here - the management team, the players, the volunteer helpers and the fans. Bashley FC is a family and even though he had not been with us for very long, Jordan is very much a part of that family.

His team-mates left that in no doubt on Saturday with the way they played - so determined to get the result they eventually achieved. I must add here, how dignified the Willand players were, standing back to applaud as our lads carried Jordan's shirt proudly aloft on their lap of honour.

The Willand club were also very supportive, leaving us in no doubt that if we wanted a postponement they would have agreed, even though that would have meant them having the inconvenience of coming up here from Devon on a Tuesday night.

The same can be said of the team joining us tonight, Thatcham Town. This fixture should have been last Tuesday, but the Berkshire club had no hesitation in agreeing the postponement we asked for.

So on behalf Bashley Football Club I would like to thank Thatcham, Willand Rovers and the multitude of clubs and fans who have sent goodwill messages to Jordan and ourselves, and who have contributed to the fund in his name, set up by our players.

If you follow Twitter/X you will no doubt have seen that AFC Totton fans were among those who sang Jordan's name at a certain time of the match on Saturday, Hythe & Dibden, along with Laverstock & Ford, held collections, Sholing fans chanted Jordan's name to a drumbeat.

Many other clubs from our League and around the country have sent messages and contributions to the fund. Absolutely amazing, and our thanks go to them on behalf of Jordan, Reighan and all at The Bash.

Enjoy the game... Steve

POST MATCH REPORT: PITCHING IN SOUTHERN LEAGUE DIVISION ONE SOUTH

BASHLEY.....3
WILLAND.....2

BASHLEY ACHIEVED THE RESULT THEY SO DESPERATELY WANTED ON AN AFTERNOON OF HIGH-EMOTION AT THE VEHO COMMUNITY STADIUM.

With striker Jordan Chiedozie still laying seriously injured in hospital after that freak road accident seven days earlier, his team mates hoisted his No11 shirt onto a pillar behind the home dugout - and it certainly gave them inspiration.

Jordan's family, including partner Michaela, and his father John - the former Spurs winger - were guests of the club and watched as Bash collected all three points on the back of a terrific trio of headers by Mitch Speechley-Price, Brett Williams and Dan Walster.

At a meeting on Thursday, the Bashley players considered whether to hold back from playing this game, as they had done to everyone's understanding for the Tuesday fixture against Thatcham - or return to action and dedicate the game to Jordan.

They chose the latter - and gave a performance to be proud of. The scoreline has a falsely-close look because of what Bash players and fans considered a baffling penalty decision in favour of Willand six minutes from the end of normal time.

Likewise, referee Tom Farlow didn't quite capture the mood of the moment when he fussily showed a yellow, then straight away a red card to Bashley manager Dave Lewis, banning him from the touchline for the final 15 minutes.

The opening stages were fairly tentative, with little goalmouth action, but soon the pendulum started swinging decisively in Bashley's favour - the home side, unusually, attacking the clubhouse end first.

Josh Bertie, returning at left back in a new-look back line, made a long, foraging run down the left and sent in a teasing cross which took a frantic diving block by Ross Edwards to prevent trouble developing behind him.

Willand won the game's first corner, which caused a bit of confusion as it came in - but it was Bashley's first corner, on 20 minutes which brought the opener.

A typical Lewis Ross inswinging corner was met by the very fired-up Mitch Speechley-Price with a powerful downward header. 1-0 - and inspirational, Mitch's first goal on his return to the club.

Suddenly Bash started playing with more freedom and spirit of adventure, with heroes all over the park. It could easily have been two when Luke Holmes sprung the offside trap and raced clear. He veered to the right of the advancing George Burton, but somehow the keeper kept the ball out after going to ground early.

There was a momentary lapse when Harvey Dorothy got in behind the Bash back line and Mack Allan looked as though he might have gone too soon in racing out 20 yards to meet him - but the young keeper got there in the nick of time to blast the ball off the striker's toes.

Soon Bash came rampaging forward again, and on 35 minutes it was deservedly 2-0. Lewis Ross, this time with a free kick high into the box where Brett Williams turned back the clock with a vintage Brett Williams header. Here we go, big win ahead!

But, oops, 43 minutes on the clock and a penalty for Willand which few of us saw through a forest of players. It looked as though Lewis Waterfield may or may not have tripped Ashton Hewitt but there was no maybe about the way Bailey Kempster took the spot kick, text book, low to Mack's left corner.

So at 45 it may have been Bash two or more ahead, but instead it was a modest 2-1 and still some work to do.

Willo was in the mood and might have had a penalty - possibly more convincing than the one Willand were awarded, when he was flattened as he raced in from the right.

Just short of the hour mark came the third fabulous headed goal of Bashley's afternoon. Lewis Ross completed a hat-trick of assists with a right wing free kick which Dan Walster came diving through a pack of players to head in at the near post.

Luke Holmes had the ball in the net again but couldn't beat the offside flag - then came the moment which looked as though it could have set in motion the spoiling of the afternoon.

However, with six minutes of normal time remaining, and some goalmouth tussling, pre a corner, the like off which we've all seen a hundred times before. Referee Farlow decided to have a discussion with what seemed six of one and half-a-dozen of other players jostling.

Cynics on the touchline were guessing what would come next. In came the corner, down went Mr Farlow's hand, pointing to the penalty spot. Probably fair to say if you are giving those you could give half-a-dozen a game.

Anyway, penalty it was, and a second expertly-placed spot-kick by Bailey Hempster. Suddenly from a position of comfortably coasting home, Bash still had a bit to do.

On this day of such massive determination, there was probably seldom a doubt that they would hold on, even through a generous seven minutes of added time.

In fact it almost got even better when Ross tried his luck with a cross-shot from left or the area, bringing a diving save from Burton.

So 3-2 and mission accomplished - a win for Jordan! The Bash players, led by non-playing skipper Steve Walker, held the Number 11 shirt aloft as the Bashley players took a leap of honour, applauding the crowd as they came around and the crowd reciprocating in style.

Fair play to Willand, whose team stood back in the centre-circle and joined the applause. From their point of view, probably a bad day to be the potential fall-guys on such an emotional roller-coaster of a day.

BASHLEY Allan; Walster, Speechley-Price, Edmondson, Bertie; Baughan, Waterfield (Wooding 90), Ross, Holmes (Bailey 90+5); Arnold (Samadi 58), Williams (Whiteley 68). Sub Not Used: Bertrand.

THATCHAM TOWN FC - "THE KINGFISHERS"

HOPEFULLY it will be third time lucky tonight for what we think is the first-ever visit to Bashley for Thatcham Town - this fixture has already been postponed twice in recent weeks.

And while Bash need the three points to climb back towards the top-end play-off zone, Thatcham need the win to get lift-off away from the bottom-end play-offs.

They were furious to be shifted into the travel-heavy Southern League after finishing eighth last season in the Isthmian South Central. Their protests about the mandatory move were in vain, and they have found that not only is there more travelling, but also the overall standard is perhaps slightly higher.

They got an early warning of that back in August when Bash went to the Mettla Stadium and eased to a 2-0 win on the back of goals by Scott Bungay and George Ashby. Since then manager Yash Romeo and his team have found it hard to get any rhythm - and although they have had some significant successes, those have been almost entirely at home.

The Kingfishers have also drawn at Bishops Cleeve (4-4) and Helston (2-2) but have yet to win on the road - however back at base they have seen off Malvern (3-0), Bristol Manor (2-1), Evesham (1-0), Willand (4-1) and Shaftesbury (1-0).

However, recent results are improving, and a 1-0 home win against Larkhall, followed by Saturday's excellent 2-2 draw away to high-flyers Bristol Manor Farm will have boosted their confidence.

Thatcham Town Football Club is one of the oldest in our League, having been founded in 1894. The club was originally known just as Thatcham, with Town being added to its name in 1974. In the early years Thatcham played at The Marsh on Dunston Green, Brownsfield (home of the Cricket Club) and Station Road, before moving to Lancaster Close in 1949.

Floodlights were erected in January 1983 with Fulham FC visiting for a commemorative friendly match. To provide improved facilities, the club moved to Waterside Park in 1992/93, with the ground becoming known as The Stacatruc Stadium from August 2019, then - as currently - the Mettal Stadium from August 2023.

THIS SEASON'S MATCH-UP
26 AUG 2024: THATCHAM 0-2 BASHLEY

THERE was a huge contingent of Bash fans who braved the M3 bank holiday traffic chaos to almost outnumber home supporters in the crowd. And the Black and Gold army soon had plenty to cheer, just seven minutes on the clock when Scott Bungay opened the scoring after an opportunist solo run. Thatcham picked up after the interval, but Bashley's

"game management" protected the one-goal lead, and eventually a defensive howler let in George Ashby to seal it with his first Bashley goal.

BASHLEY Allan; Bertrand, Walster, Walker, Wooding; Delaney (Arnold 64), Ross, Holmes (Ashby 77), Waterfield; Bungay (S.Bradford 75), Whiteley. Subs Not Used: Casey, Lewis.
