ABOUT

CroTex is an outlaw, classic, and 90s country cover band out of Fort Worth, Texas, with a few originals mixed in. Influenced by Waylon Jennings, George Strait, Brooks and Dunn, and Sturgill Simpson, we play the kind of country that keeps the dance floor full and the crowd singing. We bring a professional, high energy show with real Texas attitude, making us easy to work with and a solid choice for promoters who want a band that sounds great, connects with the crowd, and keeps people in the room.

Meet the team behind CroTex. Mitch holds down rhythm guitar and lead vocals, bringing the outlaw edge and front-man energy. Josh is on lead guitar and backup vocals, adding fire and melody to every song. Will locks in the groove on bass guitar, keeping everything tight and driving. Dustin is on drums, laying the foundation and keeping the band moving all night long. Together, we bring a full, powerful Texas country sound to every stage.
