

HONEYBEE BUZZ

JUNE 2018

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

To Starr, I want to say THANK YOU, for all the time and energy that you have given to Honeybee Quilt Guild over the past years. You will be missed!

My sewing room seems to have a little more room in it since in the last couple of months three large storage boxes of "stuff" has come out of it. It went into the Ugly Auction, now some of you have all that "stuff" in your sewing room. Too bad, I now have some of your "stuff" in to replace it. Go, Figure!

We will have Linda Hahn as a guest at the June meeting to do a trunk show, and then Linda will present a workshop later in the month, Feeling Crabby. If you have not signed up for the workshop get in touch with Pat Guilford to see if there is still space.

At the June meeting two challenges are due; Orphan block and the first round robin. If you need more info about the Challenges contact Justina Muehler. The Paint Chip challenge is coming up very quickly so put on your thinking/creative caps so Honeybees will be very well represented as the Quiltfest Special Display.

Don't forget if you are entering a quilt into Quiltfest, the July registration date is rapidly approaching..

Keep on Keeping on Elaine

CHALLENGES

Orphan Block Swap - We exchanged orphan blocks in March. Bring your finished charity project using your orphan block to the June meeting. You can make a walker bag, a quilt, a place mat, a wheelchair lap quilt or any other charity project you can think of. Use any quilting technique you like.

Paint Chip Challenge - This will be the challenge we display at Quiltfest so let's show everyone how creative we can be. Use the four colors on your paint chip to create a wallhanging no wider than 24" (it can be longer than 24"). You can use any technique and can add black, white, or black and white fabric to the colors on your paint chip. Think monochromatic. Add a hanging sleeve and story label. Keep your paint chip so that we can display it along with your quilt. These will be due in August. I have extra paint chips if anybody still needs one.

Round Robin Challenge - Start with a block of your choice and each month I will give you instructions to add a new border. We will go 6 months. The last border will be given in September. That gives you a couple months to finish your quilts a possibly even get the binding on so we can display them at our Christmas Party.

General rules:

- Be creative
- Challenge yourself. Try a new technique, use a color pallet you don't normally use, try that new tool or ruler you bought but haven't gotten around to using yet
- Follow the border sizes and shapes/techniques assigned

Due June: Pick a center block you would like to highlight. It can be a leftover block from another project or an exchange, a block from a friend, an appliquéd block, a photo block, anything you want to honor with borders around it. Your center block can be any size, just remember we will be adding approximately 54" in borders so if you pick a 20" block you'll have a 74" square quilt. If you pick a rectangle it will be its dimensions plus 54". You get the idea.

After you pick your center block square the sides so it is easy to work with and add a 2" framing border around it. Next add a 3" border using a curved piecing technique. Drunkard's path, waves, appliqué circles on, even yo-yo's will work for this border. use your imagination. You will have added 10" to your original block.

PROGRAMS

Hope you all are excited about our speaker this month, Linda Hahn. Linda is famous for the New York Beauty pattern/block, and is very entertaining. Don't miss the June meeting!

Linda will also be coming for a workshop (Feelin' Crabby) on June 16. There are still 5 spots available, so bring your deposit ($25) to reserve a place.

In July, Jamie from Cinnamon's will come talk about the latest trends in the world of quilting. Joan Jaffray will also be at the July meeting to tell us what we need for her workshop on July 21 (which will be held at Cinnamon's).

Also, be ready to sign up for the retreat at Lake Swan on August 16-19. There is a lot going on, but remember, if you have any suggestions or ideas, please pass them along.
