Medicare takes care of your health...
but who will take care
of final expenses?

A Small plan now can save your family a big stress later

Dear First Name,

I'm proud to be your Medicare agent, and my job doesn't stop with making sure your health coverage is in place. I also want to help you protect your loved ones from unnecessary stress.

Final Expense coverage is a simple, affordable way to make sure your family isn't left with medical bills, funeral costs, or other end-of-life expenses.

Here's why many of my clients add it:

- Premiums fit most budgets
- Coverage that never expires or increases in cost
- Peace of mind for you and your family

Getting covered is quick, with no medical exam and fast approval.

Your family's peace of mind is worth the call.

Warm regards,
