

Can You Dig It?

It ain't necessarily so
Said one jealous moon
Round about midnight
Or was it noon?

I went out to lunch
With our man in Paris
The autumn leaves
And Miles on the terrace

There was somethin' else?
Was it Ella's summer heat
Or Monk's dream
With blues on Hill street

On September second
I was seeing you
Strange fruit on trees
A kind of blue

On dolphin street
The Green played again
Breezin in LA
After the rain

Her maiden voyage
The blue train pulls away
Take five the rondo hits
Could be night or day

Chitlin's con carne
Down at chicken shack
on Harlem's river drive
Chet is back!

Saturday night groovin'
And Freddie is freeloading
Waltzing with Debby
And Naima is moanin'

So back to Birdland
I have been fooled
Blue Canvas ready
For the birth of the cool
