

WATFORD TOWN

(based on the tune for Oxford Town by Bob Dylan)

Watford Town, Watford Town
Cassiobury Park where the Manor came down
St Mary's Church on hallowed ground
All is well in Watford Town.

Why come down to Watford Town
Cos everyone smiles and there's no frown
Pump House dance to a folk sound
All is well in Watford Town.

Head up in Town, in Watford Town
Market Street to the football ground
The 'Orns at the Vic homeward bound
All is well in Watford Town.

Watford Town, Watford Town
Junction Station and Met underground
A warm welcome is there to be found
All is well in Watford Town.

Watford Town, Watford Town
The Horns pub and the civic surround
Colosseum and Elton eyes down
All is well in Watford Town.

Watford Town, Watford Town
Audentoir and fair-trade sound
The Pond and Parade we gather round
All is well in Watford Town.

Watford Town, Watford Town
Flower beds where the gates wrapped round
A peace garden and coffee ground
All is well in Watford Town.

Watford Town, Watford Town
Queens Road where stories are bound
In Bushey Arches an entrance is found
All is well in Watford Town.

Watford Town, Watford Town
Palace Theatre where drama is crowned.
The Gade, Canal, and Colne are wound
All is well in Watford Town.

Watford Town, Watford Town
Where the rain may well hammer down
Snow will come and lay on the ground
All is well in Watford Town.

Watford Town, Watford Town
Where all moves forward as we expound
Celebrate, cheer, loud and proud
This is the portrait of our glorious town.
