

A POETS PRAYER

May your stories be delightful
May your poems all ring true
May your inspiration take you
To peaks you never knew
May your audience stay with you
To follow where you go
May they understand your narrative
And savour every flow
Beginnings will be wonderful
And endings even better
You will take your readers with you
To follow every letter
And 20 years later
You can truly say
I wrote the best I can
Each and every day
