

Thumbs Up

The last one always makes me sad
Like friends moving away
I got used to them here every week
Oh I wish I could make them stay
The tension of the evening glove
Thumbs going the wrong way
The drama of a ruffle
That just doesn't want to play
The Sewing Bee has ended
The final episode last week
Patrick and Esme off the screen
No more outfits to tweak
The art of the perfect zip
With no visible stitches showing
Or lining up the buttonholes
The gift that is perfect sewing
But not long now until Bake Off starts
Paul and Pru back on the screen
Soggy bottoms and perfect bakes
What will I do in-between?
