

THE NEXT STATION IS GREAT PORTLAND STREET

Amersham, Chesham, Chalfont and Latimer,
Chorleywood, Rickmansworth, and Moor Park chatter
Croxley to Watford Met back to Moor Park, cheer,
Northwood, Northwood Mills, Pinner sincere.

North Harrow, Harrow on the Hill, change platforms for Uxbridge link,
West Harrow, Rayners Lane and Eastcote all in sync,
Ruislip, Ickenham, Hillingdon near Long Lane,
Uxbridge station is the end of the line, insane!

Back to Harrow on the Hill once again, let's all hark!
A short distance eastward to Northwick Park,
Preston Road, Wembley Park and then the long drag to Finchley Road,
Into the tunnel to Baker Street, and on we go.

The Next Station is Great Portland Street.

Beyond this one, Euston Square but only if you dare,
Kings Cross St Pancras, Farringdon declared...Barbican beware!
Moorgate, Liverpool Street a big terminus of six lines,
And finally we cross tracks to Aldgate which is fine.

Stay on train to bag a seat return journey to enjoy,
Liverpool Street, Moorgate, Barbican, oh boy!
Farringdon, Kings Cross St Pancras shining artificial light,
Euston Square a short walk to Euston, alright.

The Next Station is Great Portland Street.

North-west the train to Baker Street divine,
Finchley Road annoying but we're back online,
Wembley Park, Preston Road, Northwick Park,
The platforms at Harrow on the hill, a trifle dark.

Split down toward Uxbridge and back again,
Then north toward Amersham, countryside to reclaim,
Do we want Watford Met or Chesham branch,
It's Rickmansworth I want...mind the gap for those curved platforms!!
