

Pencils and papers, and tables with laptops
White pretty teapots and delicate teacups
Brownies and cookies, and cakes with frosting
These are a few of my favourite things

Inviting my friends for a writing retreat
Less work gets done, but boy, do we eat!
Chattering voices and storytelling,
These are a few of my favourite things

Girls in blue dresses, pink cheeks and purple hair
Silver-haired gents with scholarly flair
Fantastic stories and tales do they bring
These are a few of my favourite things

When the block strikes and plot runs dry
When I am feeling sly
I quietly lock all my friends in my house
And go away for a while
