

For Helen

A light that shone so brightly isn't shining anymore
Unless, of course, it's shining now on another shore
A voice with warmth and wisdom we can no longer hear
A strong determination, her courage very clear
So grateful that I knew her, and for all she did and said
Her loving spirit has moved on to whatever lies ahead

Jan Rees May 2025