

JUST REMEMBER THIS

Although he's been
A long time dead
His photo hangs above our bed

Casablanca was the film to see
You played it for her
You can play it for me

We watched it
On the night we were wed
We'll always have Paris, you smilingly said

We danced to the tune
Of As Time Goes By
Its melody still make me cry

Wherever we are
Wherever we belong
It will always remain our song

Of all the films
We'll ever see
Casablanca remains the one for me
