

TAKING BACK CONTROL

350 mil promised to the NHS?

I'm afraid, well...Covid's scuppered all that...

Cheer up. We're taking back control.

We're at the crease. Our turn to bat.

What's that? You were promised a brand-new car?

Been sold an old banger instead?

Well, sacrifices have to be made

If we want to get ahead...

Come on, don't sulk. You know it makes sense -- always some darkness before the light...

brief suffering first... small price to pay...

look, rest assured, our futures bright.

We'll stand unshackled. On our own two feet--

forget the fishermen! --- Wait and see,

our country's pride will be restored.

We'll know what it means to be really free!

Free from the threat of more immigration!

Free from the tyranny of the E U!

Free from Financial Regulation!

From all the meddling Unions too!

The morning's coming! A brand-new dawn!

Once more, we'll play a major role.

We'll be the envy of the world

for finally taking back control!

Melville Lovatt

