Time to put the heating on

The summer's heat is fading now
The kids are back at school
No more lazing on the beach
Or relaxing by the pool

There's a chill in the air at the start of day
And Strictly's on the box
It's time for a stroll in the great outdoors
Wearing thick and comfy socks

Leaves of amber and leaves of gold
Flutter in the breeze
While I'm at home in front of the fire
Eating muffins with toasted cheese

The summer's gone and autumn's here
And winter waits in the wings
So wrap up warm for the next few months
Until it's time for spring
