Re: Christian Weis

Dear Sirs,

This is a letter of recommendation for Christian Weis, a recent graduate of Woodbury University with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Filmmaking.

Christian is a serious filmmaker who excelled as an undergraduate at Woodbury University. He received the Outstanding Performance by a Senior Student Award during the 2014 Academic and Leadership Awards Convocation. The award succinctly stated: "An individual who has excelled in various disciplines in film and who is ready for the challenges of a career in filmmaking." This is a good description of Christian's abilities.

He has worked exceptionally hard to earn his straight "A" average and was not afraid to take on additional responsibilities. He directed a successful promotional film for the Business School that helped it earn their new accreditation. His Capstone project, "Bricktown", was the only Senior Thesis project chosen for the spring Showcase screening; and it was well received by the audience.

Christian understands what kind of commitment it takes to succeed in the professional world of filmmaking, whether it's a short promotional film or a feature film. I highly recommend Christian to any potential employer who wants a self-starter, a knowledgeable and creative filmmaker, and someone they can count on to get the job done.

If you have any questions about Christian's academics, work ethic, talent and abilities, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,
