

Questions for Glomerulonephritis

Question 1

Which medication may be prescribed if a streptococcal infection is present?

- a. Antiviral medication
- b. Antifungal medication
- c. Antibiotics
- d. Anticoagulants only

Question 2

A nurse understands that edema in glomerulonephritis occurs primarily because of:

- a. Excessive sweating
- b. Overhydration from drinking fluids
- c. Increased insulin production
- d. Decreased kidney filtration and fluid retention

Question 3

Which complication is most important for the nurse to monitor in pediatric glomerulonephritis?

- a. Hypoglycemia
- b. Hypertension
- c. Hearing loss
- d. Fractures

Question 4

Pediatric glomerulonephritis most commonly occurs after which infection?

- a. Influenza
- b. Ear infection
- c. Streptococcal throat infection
- d. Chickenpox

Question 5

Which assessment finding is commonly seen in a child with glomerulonephritis?

- a. Tea-colored urine
- b. Excessive thirst only
- c. Severe diarrhea
- d. Yellow sputum production