

The Holy Spirit

Acts 2:3-4

Today we are faced with many problems. People have questions that need answers and they look here and there for help. I say that the Lord has already supplied the answer for the things that would arise.

The church, which is the spiritual body of the Lord Jesus Christ, has the answer to the problems that face the world. The answer, the Holy Spirit.

Here are some questions and answers that are commonly asked concerning the Holy Spirit. I humbly submit them to the reader and pray that they will find a place in your heart.

Have You Received The Holy Spirit Since You Believed?

...have ye received the Holy Spirit since ye believed... Acts 19:2

Is It Necessary That I Receive The Holy Spirit?

...being assembled together with them, commanded them...wait for the promise of the Father...John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence. Acts 1:4-5

...He breathed on them, and said, Receive ye the Holy Spirit. Jn 20:21-22

In the preceding verses the Lord gave instructions to receive the Holy Spirit. They were only to carry out the Great Commission until they have received divine power from on high.

Is The Holy Spirit For Everyone?

“For the promise is unto you, and to your children...as many as the Lord our God shall call.” Acts 2:39

The Holy Spirit is for as many as have accepted the Lord Jesus Christ.

The experience of the baptism of the Holy Spirit is to the church.

How Can I Receive The Holy Spirit Baptism?

Faith essential in receiving the Holy Spirit. Faith is believing what the Word of God declares. Accept and act on it as the absolute truth.

“...being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him?” Lk 11:13

There is one way to ask in faith. “...when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.” Mark 11:24.

The Holy Spirit baptism is promised to the obedient...the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey Him.” Acts 5:32

How Should I Approach The Lord To Receive The Holy Spirit?

“Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.” Heb. 4:16

“Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise: be thankful unto Him, and bless His name.” Psalm 100:4.

Approach God with praise and thanksgiving for all Spiritual blessings – Ephesians 1:3. Just think, we’re born again by His Spirit! He gave us His Son. Praise Him for these things.

Will I Speak In Other Tongues after receiving the Holy Spirit?

...And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Acts 2:3-4, 10:46-48, 19:1-6.

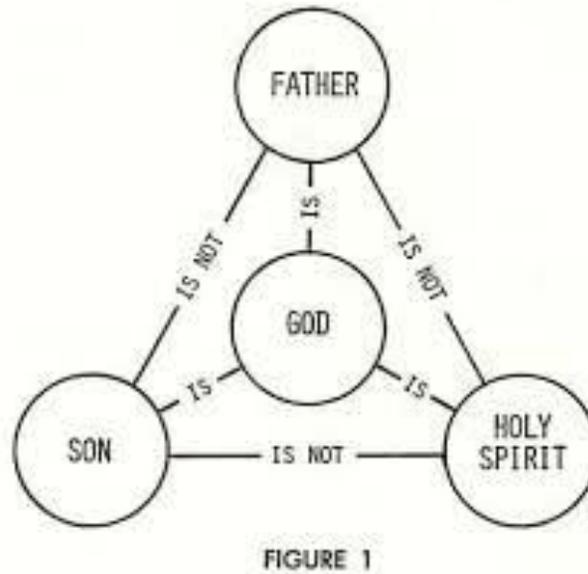

“For with stammering lips and another tongue will He speak to this people.” Isaiah 28:11

“Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than thou canst not understand.” Isaiah 33:19.

“For he that speak in an unknown tongue speak not unto men, but unto God...I Cor. 14:2.

“In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; ...Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: prophesying serves not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.” I Cor. 14:21-22.

There is much that can be said about tongues and their operation in the church.

The Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the spinal column in the body of Christ; he keeps the body (Church) in touch with the head (Jesus Christ).

The term pneumatology comes from two Greek words, namely, pneuma meaning “wind,” “breath,” or “spirit” and logos meaning “word,” “matter,” or “thing.”.

Used in Christian systematic theology, “pneumatology” refers to the study of the biblical doctrine of the Holy Spirit. Generally this includes such topics as the personality, the deity, and the work of the Spirit.
