

GREY STONE

BEER + BEVS, TRAVEL, LGBTQIA+

ABOUT ME

I'm a former brewer turned creator with an insatiable love for beer, travel, + storytelling. I take my audience on adventures with a beer in hand—exploring must-visit destinations and uncovering hidden gems. From haunted breweries, to camping in Mars-like deserts, hot air balloons in Mexico City, and guest brewing in the UK--I share curated recommendations with a fun, approachable voice and distinctive edge.

I'm also a vocal advocate for JEDI (Justice, Equity, Diversity + Inclusion) through my platform. I educate, amplify underrepresented voices, and spark conversations that matter—because great beer should be for everyone.
