Librarian Carol Singleton

We are really busy at the Library! January and February have seen some new programs at the Branch. There was fabulous music by the Django Shredders, computer “how to” classes in Excel, and Social Media, 3-D printing, our monthly book discussions, yoga classes with Ozlem, and Master Gardeners began their Spring Series. A class on Basket Weaving was completely full, and as was the program of Lawyers in the Library. You can see the beautiful baskets on display at the entrance to the branch.

Some new programs are Sewing Circle for teens and adults, Coder-Dojo for teens, Homework Help for grades K-12, and a Meditation class. Children’s ongoing programs include Family Yoga with Ozlem, Preschool Storytimes and Read To A Dog. Gingerbread House making was held in early January. A much appreciated Storytime hosted by the Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence was well attended.

Reader’s Theatre will be presented on Wednesday, Feb. 27 @ 7 pm and Saturday, Mar. 2 @ 2 pm. This is a very anticipated event, presented by the River Friends of the Library.

The Library unfortunately had to be closed during the recent flooding of the Russian River, and the One-Day Book and Bake Sale had to be postponed until Saturday, March 16th. The raffle will take place on the afternoon of February 23rd.

Lots of events are in process now for the Spring and Summer so stay tuned for those.

Many thanks to the River Friends of the Library. We are so appreciative of all your support!

OCCIDENTAL LIBRARY REFRESHER

The Occidental library storefront has had a small make-over and is now more inviting than ever! Branch Manager Nancy Fullmer requested River Friends money to purchase new rugs and new lights for the branch.

You can see for yourself that the new additions make the room into a wonderful place to sit and read. Nancy has also said that the Friends Book Sale Cart, which you can see on the right has been a big hit with patrons!

As you may know, the Occidental Branch is overseen by the Guerneville Regional Library.

The Occidental library is open Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Saturdays from Noon to 5:00 p.m.

The February 16th One-Day Book and Bake Sale has been rescheduled to Saturday, March 16th.

SONOMA COUNTY'S
NEW LIBRARY
DIRECTOR

SPOTLIGHT ON: ANN HAMMOND

Introducing the new Sonoma County Library Director!

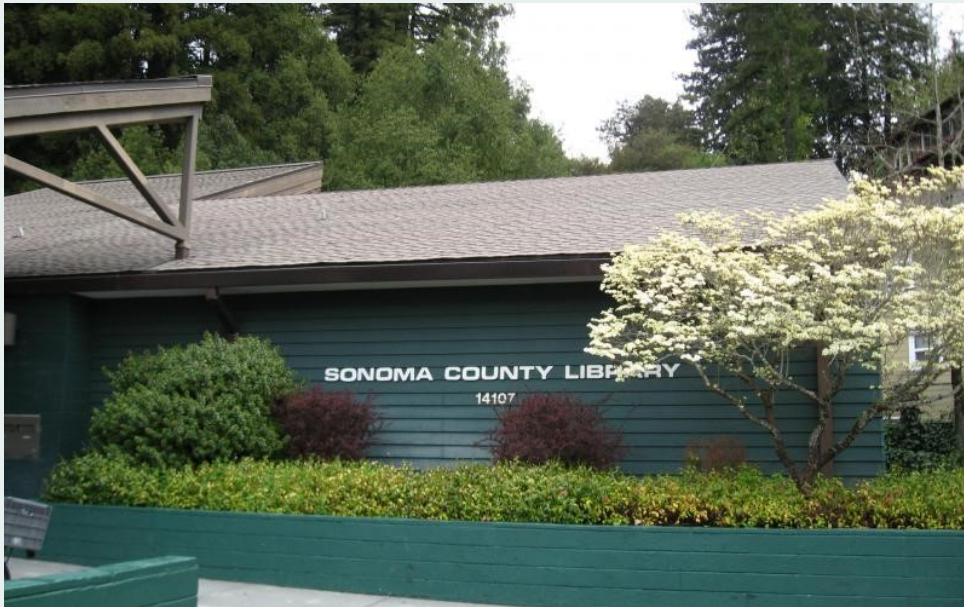

Ann Hammond will start her new job as Sonoma County Library Director on March 11th. She will be coming to us from Lexington, Kentucky where she was the Executive Director of the Lexington Public Library for the last 8 years.

Hammond, who is native to San Diego, is looking forward to coming back to California where she previously served in leadership roles in San Diego and Alameda counties. She has also worked in Florida and Maryland.

Hammond is a veteran of the U.S. Navy and once worked as a forensic scientist. She has been working continuously in libraries since 1995. She looks back fondly on her library mentor, Deanna Marcum who was then the Dean of the library school at Catholic University in Washington, DC, and convinced her that she should be a librarian. Hammond said, "She was right, there is no place in our society that is as positive and welcoming as a public library and I feel honored to be a librarian."

There are two things that Hammond says she wants our North Bay communities to know before she starts her new job: She has a lot of enthusiasm for implementing new technology in libraries and she intends to create new partnerships with our Cities and Sonoma County.

Welcome to Sonoma County Library Ann!
