Northern Territory Anti-Discrimination Act:

The Northern Territory Anti-Discrimination Act plays a crucial role in this human rights framework. The Act promotes equality of opportunity for all people in the Territory and provides remedies for people who have suffered unlawful discrimination on the grounds outlined in the Act. The Act also prohibits direct discrimination, in the area of work, on the basis of disability.

Section 24 deals with workplace personalisations (accommodation of special needs).

Section 57 makes provision for special measures to promote equality of opportunity for groups of people who are disadvantaged or who have special needs.

Disability Discrimination Act 199212

The Commonwealth Disability Discrimination Act:

Aims to provide a co-ordinated approach to assisting people with disability to gain and maintain employment. The Act also provides a set of guiding standards for the delivery of quality services, known as Disability Service Standards.

National Disability Agreement 201214

The National Disability Agreement is an initiative of the Council of Australian Governments (COAG). It provides a strong commitment from the Australian Government, states and territories to provide more opportunities for people with disability to participate and enjoy Australia's economic and social life.
