

Working in Community Services

Working in Community Services

Community Services are about helping people the right way.

Different jobs in Community Services, they all need a good attitude from workers.

Community Service Work includes

- Child care
- Aged care
- Disability care
- Community Night Patrol
- Schools
- Health Clinic
- Youth work

Aged and Disability Care Workers

- help people live good lives by supporting clients to be healthy, active and a part of community
- work with respect for all people in their care
- make sure people's dignity and rights are always respected

Parts of the job include

- meals
- personal care like showering
- looking after bedding and clothes
- arranging or helping with transport for clients
- support activities

Personal qualities to show in your work include

- caring
- patience
- talk in the right way
- listen in the right way
- read and write in the right way
- know and use numbers
- teamwork
- attention to detail
- follow instructions