

“FAMILY ALBUM” PREMIERES IN NEW YORK FILM IS THE SEQUEL OF “THE MOST FEARED SKIN”

WHAT: The International Premiere of “Family Album” the sequel of the controversial and successful film, “The Most Feared Skin” which sold out in New York last year.

WHEN: April, Sunday 13th & Thursday 17th 2025 (Red Carpet from 6pm).

WHERE: Cinema Arts Centre, Huntington, Long Island & Village East Cinema, Manhattan, NY.

WHO: Lead actor Emanuel Soriano and director Joel Calero will attend the premiere.

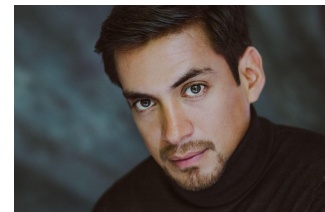

SYNOPSIS:

Family Album is an intense and emotionally charged thriller that explores the devastating impact of hidden truths and generational trauma. With its blend of suspense, mystery, and raw human emotion, this film will leave you questioning how far you would go to uncover the truth. Alex (Emanuel Soriano) will soon become a father. In a storage room, he discovers deeply disturbing family photographs. Some suggest his mother’s marital infidelity; others indicate his father, a retired officer, was involved in various acts of violence. Alex’s investigation leads him to a town devastated years before by the violence where he uncovers his true and intricate family album.

This will be a great opportunity for the audience to ask questions to both director Joel Calero and star Emanuel Soriana. There will also be a tasting of Peruvian dishes, drinks, and a folklore show.
