

Who is Truly Rich?

Dear Friends,

Our Hanukkah dinner was a great success, and the Brothers of Temple Emanu-El have proved again that they can cook a sumptuous meal. The children's talent show was a great hit, and I enjoyed seeing all of you marvel as the excellent young performers from our temple sang, danced, and played their chosen instruments. I wish to say a thank you and Yishar Koach to Ken Levy and Frank Palermo, our Brotherhood Presidents; also to Harvey Pollack, Jeff Lipman, Rick Andrews, Larry Kopelman, Shari Palermo, Danny Winkler, Mark Sloan, and Lenny Reznik. The Hebrew School students crafted beautiful, decorative centerpieces that enhanced our Hanukkah celebration. Discussing our children raises an important question: What should our priorities be in their education? I came across a compelling example that addresses this question. It is titled "Who Is Truly Rich?"

It has an important message for young and old.

One day, a wealthy father took his son on a trip to the country to show him what it was like to be poor. They stayed for a few days and nights on a farm where a destitute family lived.

After they returned home, the father asked his son how he liked the trip. "It was great, Dad," the son replied. "Did you see how poor people can be?" the father asked. "Oh yeah," the son answered.

"So what did you learn from the trip?" asked the father. The son thought for a moment and said, "I saw that we have one dog and they have four. We have a pool that runs halfway across our garden, and they have a creek that never ends. We have fancy lanterns in our garden, and they have stars that twinkle at night. Our patio is large and extends to the front yard, but they have the entire horizon.

We have a small piece of land, but they have fields that extend as far as the eye can see. We have servants who work for us, but they serve others. We buy our food, but they grow their own. We have walls around our property to keep us safe, but they have friends to protect them.” The father was silent; then the son added, “It showed me just how poor we really are.”

We often forget how much we have and fixate on what we don’t. What one person considers worthless, another might treasure. It all depends on how you see things.

Sometimes, it takes a child's perspective to remind us of what really matters.

May the New Year 2026 be a year when we set our priorities right. When we are grateful for whatever Hashem has given us and are content with our lot.

May the New Year 2026 usher in an era of peace. Peace in our homes, peace in our schools, peace in Israel, and peace for the entire world, Amen.

Hebrew School 5786 Has Been Going Strong!

This past month the students prepared for the holiday of Chanukah with gusto...learning the prayers, singing special songs, and discussing the history of the miracle.

Our Chanukah Workshop was held on December 10; the children designed lovely centerpieces for Brotherhood's Annual Chanukah Dinner & Talent Show, made beautiful chanukiah's (see the picture below), played dreidel, and enjoyed special treats.

Thank you to Rabbi Avi, our teachers (Morah Mira, Morah Chanah), and to Morah Benay, our assistant director, for making Hebrew School so special.

We look forward to our Tu B'Shevat Seder on January 28...stay tuned!

Interested in hosting a Friday night Oneg Shabbat?
It's easy; you provide setup, cleanup, paper goods,
kosher snacks and beverages.
Please call the office in advance to reserve your date.

Order cards for you, your friends and anyone who plays mah jongg no matter where they live. The cards will be sent to them directly from the Mah-Jongg League the first week of April; earlier than ordering from the NMJL directly. Have more than one order? Simply submit a separate list with their names and the CORRECT current addresses. Temple Emanu-El will receive $6.00 from each card ordered.

$14.00 for regular print cards

$15.00 for large print cards

First time buyers – just complete the form below along with your cash or check. If you previously ordered, you may receive a renewal form from the National Mah-Jongg League. Attach that mailing label only in the name/address space below.
