A Few Words After the High Holidays 5785

Dear Friends,

The High Holidays services were unique this year. They were influenced by the yearlong war in Israel and its global impact on Jews everywhere, as well as the tremendous increase in anti-Semitism in America and around the world. I tried via my sermons to convey the messages of unity of Am Yisrael and the need of every one of us to support Israel and the Jewish cause at this crucial time, even more than any other year. On Yom Kippur, I concluded my sermons with a positive, hopeful, and optimistic note for a better year and a better future for our people.

If the state of our congregation indicates the level of commitment to Judaism in the Grand Strand, I must conclude that we are in a good place.

First, our Temple Sanctuary during the High Holidays was packed to capacity with at least 200 people.

Second, many of you chanted the Torah readings and the Haftarot beautifully for the first time in your lives, and that was impressive and heartwarming to witness.

Third, we had two new Shofar blowers who practiced for months in advance for the Yamim Noraim, and they performed well.

Fourth, we were blessed to have two amazing teenagers chanting the Yom Kippur Haftarah flawlessly.

The services were spiritual, meaningful, and well organized, and I would like to take a moment to thank countless people who helped in the preparation of these magnificent days. Rick and Mary Andrews, thank you for your involvement and assistance before the holidays—plus Mary Andrews' assistance and service coordination. Amy Alese, thank you for your fantastic work in preparing our Memorial Book with the help of Julian Koplen and Lynne Baronoff and for your extra office assistance; Hugo Schiller for calling the Shofar notes and your Yizkor assistance; Sagy Daian, Ken Levy, and Paul Cohen for blowing the Shofar this year; Mira, thank you for organizing the beautiful Selichot refreshments for the social hour and the open-house Sukkah; Harvey Pollack for changing our curtains and linens. The Ritual Committee members: Julian Koplen, Hugo Schiller, Roz and Alvin Weinerman, Danny Winkler, Harvey Pollack, Lenny Reznik, and Marla Roth.

Special thank you to Joyce & Allen Aaronson, Marilyn and Mitch Minkoff, and Terry and Marianne Levenson for donating the flowers for the High Holidays; Mary Ann Allgood for polishing the silver; Dori & Steve Schefflin for organizing the challah and honey cake sale; Perri Sullivan for organizing snacks at the end of Yom Kippur services; Bobbie Lipman and Marianne Levenson for your work on the New Year's card; Lynne Baronoff and Roz and Alvin Weinerman for preparing the holiday Machzorim; the Weinermans for providing the delicious apples and honey; the Carrillo family for landscaping and groundskeeping; Carlos Carrillo and Victor Dos Anjos for building the Sukkah.

Debbie Flynn for providing holiday flowers at our entrance; Mark Unice for keeping us safe and secure; and last but not least, my dear wife, Mira, provided me with her support and inspiration, allowing me to dedicate my time to my Temple duties.

In summary, the teamwork of many people helped us create a wonderful religious experience for our Temple family. This level of involvement is unique to Temple Emanu-El, reflecting my vision of involvement and unity.

Regarding involvement in the community, The Rambam (Hilchos Teshuva 3:11) writes that a person who vigilantly and righteously observes Jewish law but separates himself from the Jewish People has no portion in the World to Come. How does he define separating from the people? Someone who doesn't identify with the tzarah, with the crisis and tragedy Jews are enduring, has no portion in the World to Come.

My wish for the New Year is that our vibrant and involved community continues on this path.

— Rabbi Avi Perets

SISTERHOOD DOINGS NOVEMBER 2024

There are many unsung heroes/heroines in our Temple. People who work behind the scenes. We all see the work has been done, but we don't know by whom. It is my privilege to be part of a group of 10 women who dedicate a day each month to make sure there is a beautifully prepared Kiddush for Shabbat. These individuals buy the vegetables and eggs used every week. They come in on Thursday or Friday morning to cut the veggies for a platter, make and plate the tuna and egg salads, prepare a tray of lox, and arrange a tray of desserts. Then, after all that, they clean the dishes and kitchen!

Today Rabah Meod and a huge round of applause goes to:

Roz Weinerman, Lisa Epstein, Shari Palermo, Roz Hanlon, Mira Perets, Pam Gelfand, Mary Margaret Andrews, Jean Gadasi, Nina Maslin, and Marla Roth.

Another shout-out to Roz and Al Weinerman for shopping for the food, paper goods, drinks, plastic wear, and anything else we need for the Onegs and Shabbats. Today Rabah!

There will be a Mah-Jongg Tournament on December 11. Marilyn Minkoff and Vita Freidman are already getting their ducks in a row for it. If you are able to help in the morning or afternoon, it would be greatly appreciated. It's a lot of work to run the tournament, but if we split the hours, it is very manageable. Please contact Marilyn or Vita if you can volunteer a few hours on December 11.

Speaking of Mah-Jongg, Lynne Baronoff deserves a huge Today Rabah for selling the Mah-Jongg cards. This year, we made an extraordinary amount of money. Lynne takes all orders and makes sure everyone gets their cards. Way to go, Lynne!

Please mark your calendars for upcoming events. For the month of December, Sisterhood will be selling virtual Chanukiot for $18.00. Also, on January 12, 2025, there will be a general Sisterhood meeting in the Rosen Center. A light breakfast will be served.

As always...

Stay Safe! Stay Healthy!

Live! Laugh! Love!

B'Shalom,
Perri Sullivan

CONGRATULATIONS TO
ADELINE REID FOR WINNING
SISTERHOOD'S 5785
NEW YEAR'S CARD CONTEST....
WAY TO GO, BAYLA!

Our Hebrew School students had a blast making decorations
for the sukkah!
Their favorite part is making
the chains, putting them
together, and stringing them
up all over the Sukkah.
Very colorful!
