Passover Preparations

According to the Talmud, 30 days before a holiday, we have to start studying the laws of that holiday. This is especially important with the holiday of Pesach, which has significantly more laws and customs than any other holiday. Thus, as we do every year, it is appropriate to begin discussing the laws, customs, and reasons associated with Pesach. The holiday has four names; each of these names emphasizes a different aspect of the holiday of Pesach.

- 1. "Chag Ha-Matzot" "Holiday of Matzot." In the Torah, the holiday of Pesach is called "Chag Ha-Matzot." The reason is that during the entire eight days (seven days in Israel) of Pesach, we are not permitted to eat leavened bread—only Matzah.
- 2. "Chag Ha-Pesach" "Holiday of Pesach." Reason: "Pesach" means to "pass over." It reminds us of the great miracle when G-d passed over the Jewish homes while afflicting the firstborn of the Egyptians. At the time of the Temple, each family or a few families would bring a special sacrifice during the afternoon before the Seder, which was eaten at the Seder. The sacrifice was called "Korban Pesach."
- 3. "Chag Ha-Aviv" "Holiday of Spring." Reason: Pesach is celebrated in the spring. For this reason, our sages fixed seven leap years in every 19-year cycle. This adjusts the Hebrew-Lunar year (354 days) to coincide with the solar year (365 days) so that Pesach will always occur in the spring.
- 4. "Z'man Cheiruteinu" "Season of Our Freedom." Reason: Pesach is the holiday in which we attained our freedom. G-d used four expressions of freedom in the Torah to tell the Jewish people that He would take them out of Egypt. As a result, the number four is essential in association with Pesach: The holiday has four names; we drink four cups of wine, we speak of the four sons, and four questions are asked at the Seder.

Recently, I read an interesting article written by Professor David Golinkin, President of Schechter Institute of Jewish Studies, Jerusalem, Israel, titled "The Origin and Development of Some Lesser-Known Pesach Customs." The following is a summary of some of these customs:

The holiday of Pesach has been blessed with hundreds of laws. Indeed, almost one-sixth of Shulhan Arukh Orah Hayyim is devoted to the laws of Pesach. It has also been blessed with many well-known customs that various scholars have discussed and debated.

Some of the lesser-known Pesach customs – or at least lesser-known to Ashkenazic Jews--started in Sefarad and migrated to Ashkenaz, and some migrated in the opposite direction. Most are still practiced by one group of Jews or another. Many rabbis and educators will find these customs welcome additions to their repertoire of Minhagim (customs).

1) Using the Lulav to Burn the Hametz or to Bake Matzah

In two places in the Babylonian Talmud (Berakhhot 39b and Shabbat 117b), we are told that when Rav Ami and Rav Assi happened to come upon a loaf of bread that had been used for an eruv tavshilin or eruv hatzerot, they would recite Hamotzi over the loaf. They said: "Since one mitzvah was done with this loaf, let us do another." These passages became the basis for reusing items that had been used to fulfill one mitzvah in order to perform another mitzvah.

R. Yehudah ben Kalonymus (Ashkenaz, twelfth century) used to save the aravot (willows) from the lulav in order to burn the hametz, basing himself on the above passage, and this custom was recorded in all of the classic custom books of Ashkenaz. In modern times, Iraqi Jews used the aravot from Hoshana Rabbah.

Wearing White at the Seder

This custom is common among Hassidim, who wear a kittel, and among the Jews of Morocco. Many interesting and convoluted explanations have been given for this and similar customs throughout Jewish history. But the simple explanation seems to be that white is a symbol of joy on Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Hoshanah Rabbah, Pesach, other pilgrim festivals, and at weddings.

3) "Silver and Gold Vessels"

The Jews of Nadishurani and Rakoshpaluta in Hungary used to decorate the Seder table with gold and silver jewels. They explained that this was to remember all the gold and silver the Israelites received from the Egyptians.

4) The Parting of the Reed Sea

The last customs take place not at the Seder, but on the seventh night of Pesach. According to the Sages, our ancestors crossed Yam Suf, the Reed Sea, on the seventh night of Pesach. Various groups of Jews have developed ways of reenacting the splitting of the Reed Sea.

The Gerer Hassidim gather in the shtibl on the seventh night of Pesach; they drink wine and dance. They then pour a barrel of water on the floor, lift their long cloaks, and "cross the sea" while declaring the towns which are located on the way to Gur. At each "town" they drink l'hayyim and then continue to Gur. When they "reach" Gur after "crossing the sea," they once again drink l'hayyim and thank God for reaching their destination.

The above is just a tiny sample of Pesach potpourri. We hope that these customs will enrich the Sedarim of those who decide to adopt them as they have enriched the Sedarim of millions of Jews throughout the generations.

Mira and I want to wish you and your family a Happy Passover

Chag Sameach V' kasher.

Passover Mitzvah-Kamcha D'Pascha

One of the greatest mitzvahs is giving charity (food) to the needy prior to the holiday of Pesach (Passover). We encourage all who are able to make a Pesach tzedakah donation to Temple Emanu-El.

This special tzedakah will provide a seat at the table to those who might otherwise not be able to attend our Community Seder.

Please make your checks out to the Rabbi's Discretionary Fund and mark them "For Passover" on the memo line.

Thank you and chag sameach!

Sisterhood Doings...APRIL 2025

When the time changes, and the weather gets more pleasant, and the flowers begin to bloom, we know Passover will be here soon. So, we grab our Magic Cleaning Cloths, don clothes that we wouldn't wear outside the home (hoping no one rings the doorbell), and start to prepare the house for the holiday. It is a daunting task, but when it is all said and done, our satisfied smile speaks volumes. Now, it is time to cook. OY!

Sisterhood wishes each of you a Joyous and Kosher Pesach!

Not quite sure how to express gratitude for all the hard work Marilyn Minkoff and Vita Friedman put into running the Mah-Jongg tournaments. Todah Rabah doesn't seem to be enough, but...Todah Rabah! The event was filled to capacity, the food was delicious, and all the participants had a grand time. Even though Marilyn and Vita plan and orchestrate this event, none of it would be possible without the help of the volunteers: Carol Seplow, Lynne Baronoff, Sharon Rubin, Isabel Pfeffer, Benay Brockman, Anne Peacock, Bobbie Lipman, Sandy Stamer, Dori Schefflin, Roz Weinerman, Paula Kopelman, Vivian Stevens, Susan Glaser, Delores Anschel, Laura Tolbert, Heather Conklin, and Leilani Fallon-Gordon. Thank You Bunches! Also, Many Thanks to the Brotherhood members who helped with the table setup: Frank Palermo, Harvey Pollack, Danny Winkler, Mark Sloan, Larry Kopelman, Rick Andrews, and Jeff Lipman.

On April 26, 2025, Sisterhood will sponsor a Women's Shabbat and Kiddush. We would like as much of the service as possible to be conducted by the women of the congregation. If you would like to participate in English or Hebrew, please contact Roz Weinerman.

Mark your calendars:

B'Shalom,

Perri Sullivan

SELLING OF CHAMETZ

Any chametz owned by a Jew during Passover Week becomes "tref" and is forbidden for actual use or benefit forever. It is usually impossible to dispose of all chametz before Passover, so every Jew should arrange for a formal Mechirat Chametz, or sale of that chametz.

CONTACT RABBI AVI PERETS at 843-450-4923 or avip7@aol.com or clip and return the form below to 406 65th Avenue North, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina 29572.

Preparations before Passover

Approximately once every nine years, Passover begins on Saturday night. This means that Erev Pesach, the day before Passover, coincides with Shabbat, bringing with it a number of unique laws and guidelines. Please see the insert included in this Bulletin for the special rules.

Siyyum Bekhorim: A first born should fast on the day before Passover or participate in a Torah study session in commemoration of the deliverance from Egypt. This year, the fast or study session will be done on Thursday, April 10. (See insert.)

Bedikat Chametz: Bedikat chametz (search for leaven) is customarily done on the night before Passover, immediately after sunset. This year it will be done on Thursday night, April 10. The blessing for bedikat chametz is recited. (See insert.)

Biur Chametz: This year, the biur (burning) chametz (removal of chametz) shall be done on the morning of Friday, April 11. The burning of the chametz should be completed by the fifth hour after sunrise. (See insert.)

Passover Suggestions for the Family

We urge that all parents (and grandparents) plan with utmost care in preparation for the Seder. Pesach and the Seder are precious gifts. Let us make them available in all of their beauty to our children and also to ourselves. We offer the following suggestions:

- * Parents should involve children in pre-festival housecleaning and general Passover preparations. The memories of the sights, sounds and smells of the home around holiday time remain with us as Jews throughout our adult lives. So let the children feel the excitement and the anticipation!
- Order an adequate number of copies of the Haggadah in advance.
- * The leader of the service should set the tone of a religious, though cheerful, home service. The service is to be central and the meal secondary.
- ★ The leader should assign in advance the portions to be read by others so as to give them time to become proficient. He should personally study the Mah Nishtanah with the youngest child. This may prove to be one of the happiest by-products of the service.
- * The evening should not end with the meal. The closing portions of the Haggadah should be recited after the meal.
- The service is in large measure designed for the children. The children must be involved at every opportunity, especially in the description of the Four Sons, the opening of the door for Elijah, the Ekhod Mi Yodeah, and the Had Gadya. The total experience of the Seder gives a wonderful sense of belonging to a great tradition of participating in the birth of a people's freedom and of strengthening the basic democratic ideals of America.

The Seder Table

CANDLES are lit by the mother of the house to usher in the festival of Passover. The blessing that she says over the candles gives a religious meaning to this simple act. An abundance of light symbolizes joy and festivity, and the soft candle glow adds an aura of spirituality to the Seder table. Since Pesach begins on Saturday evening, candles will be lit from the pre-existing Shabbat flame.

A CUP OF WINE is placed at each table setting. The sanctification of the holiday is pronounced over the first cup. Three additional cups are drunk during the course of the Seder, making a total of four, to symbolize the four expressions of the Lord's promise to redeem the Children of Israel and deliver them from bondage.

THE HAGGADAH (literally "the telling") contains the complete Seder ceremonies in their prescribed order (Seder). The first part of the book, concerned mainly with the story of the Jews' deliverance from Egypt, is read before the meal. After dinner comes the second portion, consisting of prayers of praise and thanks to the Almighty.

MATZAH represents the "bread of affliction," eaten by the Jews in Egypt, and also the bread that had to be baked during the hasty flight when there was no time for leavening. Three matzot are placed on the Seder tray. Half the middle matzah is saved for the Afikoman (dessert), and is playfully stolen by a child and ransomed for a prize.

THE CUP OF ELIJAH, filled with wine, is kept on the table throughout the Seder in the hope that the Prophet Elijah may appear as a messenger of the Almighty and announce the coming of the Messiah. Thus, in the midst of their memories of the past, the Jews look forward to the day of universal peace, love, and brotherhood.

The Beitzah, a roasted egg, placed left of the Z'roah, symbolizes the required offering brought on all festivals in the Temple. The egg is used in the Seder as it is the Jewish symbol of mourning (in this case for the loss of the Temple, where the sacrifices were brought).

The Maror or "bitter herbs" (usually horseradish) is placed in the middle of the tray and symbolizes the bitter suffering of the Jews under the Egyptian yoke. The Chazereth, another piece of bitter herbs, commemorates the custom of eating Maror sandwiched between two pieces of matzah.

The Karpas, a piece of parsley or lettuce, placed to the left of the Charoset, symbolizes the meager diet of the Jews in Egyptian bondage. It is dipped into salt water in remembrance of the tears they shed in their misery. The Karpas also signifies Springtime, the season of Passover.

The Z'roah, the roasted shank bone, is placed on the Seder tray. It represents the ancient sacrifice of the Paschal Lamb (Pesach), which had to be eaten and roasted. Pesach, the Hebrew name for Passover, also refers to the Lord's passing over (Pesach) the Jewish homes during the plague visited upon the Egyptian firstborn.

The Charoset, placed beneath the Z'roah, is a mixture of chopped apple, nuts, cinnamon, and wine, designed to look like the mortar used by the Jews in building the palaces and pyramids of Egypt, during centuries of forced labor. Before the Maror is eaten, it is dipped into the Charoset.

Passover Observances and Regulations

The Torah prohibits ownership of chametz (leaven) during Pesach. Therefore, we arrange for the sale of the chametz to a non-Jew. The transfer, mekhirat chametz, is accomplished by appointing an agent, usually the rabbi, to handle the sale. It is a valid and legal transfer of ownership. At the end of the holiday, the agent arranges for the reversion of ownership of the now permitted chametz. If ownership of the chametz was not transferred before the holiday, the use of this chametz is prohibited after the holiday, as well (chametz she-avar alay ha-Pesach).

As the Torah prohibits the eating of chametz during Pesach, and because many common foods contain some mixture of chametz, guidance is necessary when shopping and preparing for Pesach. What follows is a general guideline. However, the rabbi should be consulted when any doubt arises. Kosher le-Pesach labels that do not bear the name of the rabbi or one of the recognized symbols of rabbinic supervision, or that are not integral to the package, should not be used without consulting the Rabbi.

Prohibited Foods

Leavened bread, cakes, biscuits, crackers, cereal, coffees containing cereal derivatives, wheat, barley, oats, spelt, rye and all liquids containing ingredients or flavors make from grain alcohol.

THE NEW RULING OF The Committee on Jewish Law and Standards permits kitniyot (legumes that were previously prohibited food for Ashkenazi Jews).

Since 2015 these foods are allowed for all Jews; rice, corn, millet, legumes (beans and peas) string beans and peanut oil.

Permitted Foods

A. THESE FOODS REQUIRE NO KOSHER LE-PESACH LABEL IF PURCHASED PRIOR TO PESACH:

Unopened packages or containers of natural coffee without cereal additives (be aware that coffees produced by General Foods are not kosher for Passover, unless marked KP); sugar, pure tea; salt (not iodized); pepper; natural spices, baking soda, frozen fruit juices and frozen uncooked fruit with no additives; frozen (uncooked) vegetables (for legumes see above); milk, butter, cottage cheese, cream cheese, ripened cheeses such as cheddar (hard) muenster (semi-soft) and Camembert (soft); processed cheese, i.e. American cheese and cheese foods require kosher for Passover label.

B. THESE FOODS REQUIRE NO KOSHER LE-PESACH LABEL IF PURCHASED BEFORE OR DURING PESACH:

Fresh fruits and vegetables (for legumes, see above), eggs, fresh fish and fresh meat.

C. THESE FOODS REQUIRE A KOSHER LE-PESACH LABEL IF PURCHASED BEFORE OR DURING PESACH:

All baked products (matzah, cakes, matzah flour, farfel, matzah meal and any products containing matzah): canned or bottled fruit juices (These juices are often clarified with kitniyot, which are not listed in the ingredients. However, if one knows there are no such agents, the juice may be purchased prior to Pesach, without a kosher le-Pesach label); canned tuna (Even tuna packed in water, has often been processed in vegetable broth and/or hydrolyzed protein. However, if it is known that the tuna is packed exclusively in water, without any additional ingredients or additives, it may be purchased without a kosher le-Pesach label); wine, vinegar, liquor, oils, dried fruits, candy, chocolate flavored milk, ice cream, yogurt and soda.

D. THESE PROCESSED FOODS (CANNED, BOTTLED OR FROZEN), REQUIRE A KOSHER LE-PESACH LABEL IF PURCHASED DURING PESACH:

Milk, butter, juices, vegetables, fruit, milk products, spices, coffee, tea and fish, as well as all foods in category C, above.

DETERGENTS: If permitted during the year, powdered and liquid detergents do not require a kosher le-Pesach label.

MEDICINE: Since chametz binders are used in many pills, the following guidelines should be followed. If the medicine is required for life sustaining therapy, it may be used on Pesach. If it is not for life sustaining therapy, some authorities permit, while others prohibit. Consult your Rabbi. In some cases, capsules are preferable.

KASHERING OF UTENSILS: The process of koshering utensils depends on how the utensils are used. According to Halakhah, leaven can be purged from a utensil by the same process in which it was absorbed in the utensil. Therefore, utensils used in cooking are kashered by boiling, those used in broiling are kashered by fire and heat, and those used only for cold food are kashered by rinsing.

EARTHENWARE: China, pottery, etc., may not be kashered. However, fine translucent chinaware, which has not been used for over a year may be used if scoured and cleaned in hot water.

METAL UTENSILS (WHOLLY MADE OF METAL): Used in fire (spit, broilers) must first be thoroughly scrubbed and cleansed and then made as hot as possible. Those used for cooking or eating (silverware, pots) must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned and completely immersed in boiling water. Pots should have water boiled in them, which should overflow the rim.

Pots should not be used for a period of at least 24 hours between the cleaning and the immersion in boiling water. Metal & glass bakeware cannot be kashered.

DISHWASHER: After not using the machine for a period of 24 hours, a full cycle with detergent should be run.

OVENS & RANGES: Every part that comes into contact with food must be thoroughly scrubbed and cleaned. Then the oven and range should be heated a s hot as possible for a half hour. If there is a broil setting, use it. Self-cleaning ovens should be scrubbed and cleaned and then put through the self-cleaning cycle. Continuous cleaning ovens must be kashered in the same manner as regular ovens. Microwave ovens, which do not cook the food by means of heat, should be cleaned and then a cup of water should be placed inside. Then the oven should be turned on until the water disappears. A microwave oven that has a browning element cannot be kashered for Pesach. For gas stoves, the stove, as well as the burners should be scrubbed and cleaned and then turned on until red hot.

GLASSWARE: Authorities disagree as to the method for kashering drinking utensils. One opinion requires soaking in water for three days, changing the water every 24 hours. The other opinion requires only a thorough scrubbing before Pesach and soaking them for 24 hours or putting them through a dishwasher. Corning ware is considered glassware. Pyrex may be kashered in the same way as glassware.

ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES: If the parts that come into contact with chametz are removable, they can be kashered in the appropriate way (if metal,, follow the rules for metal utensils). If the parts are not removable, the appliance cannot be kashered. All exposed parts should be thoroughly cleaned.

TABLE, CLOSETS AND COUNTERS: If used with chametz, they should be thoroughly cleaned and covered and then they may be used.

KITCHEN SINK: A metal sink can be kashered by thoroughly cleaning and then pouring boiling water over it. A porcelain sink should be cleaned and a sink rack used. If however, dishes are to be soaked in a porcelain sink, a dish basin must be used.

CHAMETZ AND NON-PASSOVER UTENSILS: Non-Passover dishes, pots and chametz, whose ownership has been transferred, should be separated, locked up or covered and marked, in order to prevent accidental use.
