Chanukah History

Dear Friends,

We start celebrating Chanukah this year by lighting the first candle on Sunday night, December 14. The traditional story of this holiday recounts events that took place almost 2,200 years ago when a few Jews fought the mighty Syrian Greek army and won. The reasons for the Jewish revolt were not political or economic, but religious. The Maccabees fought a religious war. They were fighting for religious independence and spiritual freedom.

Amazingly enough, even now that we are at the height of the Modern Era, the 21st century, this message of respect and tolerance for different religions is still very much needed. In the past two years, Israel has fought on seven fronts.

1. Gaza (Hamas) – The core of the conflict after October 7. Israel launched a massive ground and air campaign beginning in late 2023.
2. Lebanon (Hezbollah) – Joined the war shortly after, launching about 7,500 rockets and 200 drones by August 2024.
3. Yemen (Houthis) – Fired roughly 200 missiles and 170 drones toward Israel and ships in the Red Sea.
4. Iran (Direct attacks) – Two large-scale assaults: April (hundreds of drones/missiles) and October (180 ballistic missiles).
5. Iraq (Iran-backed militias) – Launched drone attacks on Israel and U.S. forces; killed three Americans in January 2024.
6. Syria – Iranian forces and remnants of the Assad regime targeted Israel; Israel struck back heavily, especially after December 8.
7. West Bank – Hamas and Palestinian Islamic Jihad cells attempted to open a new front; Israel launched major counter-terror raids.

The Seven Fronts War, in its core, has many religious elements; these are all Muslim countries/terrorist organizations, and common to all is the religious call for Jihad, a holy war against the infidels (the Jews).

I want to share with you the original story of Chanukah as it appears in The First Book of Maccabees.

The anonymous author describes the Jews' struggle for religious, cultural, and political independence against the Seleucid king Antiochus IV Epiphanes and his successors, who were Greeks and sympathized with the Hellenization of Judah. I found the description of King Antiochus's atrocities horrifyingly similar to what Hamas did on October 7.

Please read selections from this historical book and judge for yourself.

Chapter 1: "When Antiochus saw that his kingdom was established, he determined to become king of the land of Egypt, that he might reign over both kingdoms. So he invaded Egypt with a strong force, with chariots, elephants, cavalry, and a large fleet. [Autumn 169 BCE] After subduing Egypt, Antiochus returned in the one hundred and forty-third year. He went up against Israel and came to Jerusalem with a strong force. He arrogantly entered the sanctuary and took the golden altar, the lampstand for the light, and all its utensils. He also took the table for the Bread of the Presence, the cups for drink offerings, the bowls, the golden censers, the curtain, the crowns, and the gold decoration on the front of the temple; he stripped it all off. He took the silver and the gold, and the costly vessels; he took also the hidden treasures which he found. Taking them all, he departed for his own land. He committed deeds of murder and spoke with great arrogance. Israel mourned deeply in every community, rulers and elders groaned, maidens and young men became faint, and the beauty of women faded. [167 BCE] Two years later, the king sent to the cities of Judah a chief collector of tribute, and he came to Jerusalem with a large force. Deceitfully, he spoke peaceable words to them, and they believed him; but he suddenly fell upon the city, dealt it a severe blow, and destroyed many people of Israel. He plundered the city, burned it with fire, and tore down its houses and its surrounding walls. And they took captive the women and children, and seized the cattle.

Then they fortified the city of David with a great strong wall and strong towers, and it became their citadel. And they stationed there a sinful people, lawless men. These strengthened their position; they stored up arms and food, and collecting the spoils of Jerusalem, they stored them there, and became a great snare.

It became an ambush against the sanctuary, an evil adversary of Israel continually. On every side of the sanctuary, they shed innocent blood; they even defiled the sanctuary. Because of them the residents of Jerusalem fled; she became a dwelling of strangers; she became strange to her offspring, and her children forsook her. Her sanctuary became desolate as a desert; her feasts were turned into mourning, her Sabbaths into a reproach, her honor into contempt. Her dishonor now grew as great as her glory; her exaltation was turned into mourning.

Then the king wrote to his whole kingdom that all should be one people, and that each should give up his customs. All the Gentiles accepted the command of the king. Many even from Israel gladly adopted his religion; they sacrificed to idols and profaned the Sabbath. And the king sent letters by messengers to Jerusalem and the cities of Judah; he directed them to follow customs strange to the land, to forbid burnt offerings and sacrifices and drink offerings in the sanctuary, to profane sabbaths and feasts, to defile the sanctuary and the priests, to build altars and sacred precincts and shrines for idols, to sacrifice swine and unclean animals, and to leave their sons uncircumcised. They were to make themselves abominable by everything unclean and profane, so that they should forget the law and change all the ordinances. "And whoever does not obey the command of the king shall die."

In such words he wrote to his whole kingdom. And he appointed inspectors over all the people and commanded the cities of Judah to offer sacrifice, city by city. Many of the people, everyone who forsook the law, joined them, and they did evil in the land; they drove Israel into hiding in every place of refuge they had.

Now on the fifteenth day of Kislev, in the one hundred and forty-fifth year [SE; 6 December 167 BCE], they erected a desolating sacrilege upon the altar of burnt offering. They also built altars in the surrounding cities of Judah and burned incense at the doors of the houses and in the streets. The books of the law which they found, they tore to pieces and burned with fire. Where the book of the covenant was found in the possession of anyone, or if anyone adhered to the law, the decree of the king condemned him to death. They kept using violence against Israel, against those found month after month in the cities.

And on the twenty-fifth day of the month, they offered sacrifice on the altar which was upon the altar of burnt offering. According to the decree, they put to death the women who had their children circumcised, and their families and those who circumcised them; and they hung the infants from their mothers' necks.

But many in Israel stood firm and were resolved in their hearts not to eat unclean food. They chose to die rather than to be defiled by food or to profane the holy covenant, and they did die. And very great wrath came upon Israel. "

In the following chapters, we read the description of the Military actions by Judas the Maccabean ('battle hammer'): after 166 BCE, he defeats the Seleucid armies three times and liberates Jerusalem, where the temple is purified. "

When reading these chapters of our history, we realize how miraculous our people's survival is. Against the mighty Greek army, the Jews endured, and the Greek empire vanished.

Am Yisrael Chai - The Nation of Israel lives."

Mira and I want to wish you and your family Hag Hanukkah Sameach

Sisterhood Doings... December 2025

Mark your calendar as busy on January 25. There will be a Sisterhood general meeting at 10:30 AM. We are asking for everyone to bring in their favorite recipe on a sheet of paper. It'll be fun to see what others like, and maybe add a new dish to your food rotation. See flyer for more details.

Looking for a unique way to honor/remember a loved one? We have the perfect solution to your dilemma. Light a Chanukiah project is underway. You can purchase a virtual Chanukiah for $18.00 and dedicate it to whomever or whatever you wish. This is fun and easy. Just fill out the form found in the Bulletin, attach a check, and mail it to the Temple by December 15. All submissions will be printed in the January Bulletin.

Vita Friedman and Dori Schefflin are hard at work preparing for Sisterhood's next Mah-Jongg Tournament, which will be held on Wednesday, December 17. Please see the advertisement in this Bulletin and if you would like to volunteer for the event, please contact Dori.

We are still actively selling 2026 National Mah-Jongg Cards. Please see the advertisement in this Bulletin to place an order. This is a fundraiser, so please get your family, friends, and neighbors involved.
