The Message of Our Torah

Dear Friends,

The Passover Seder at the Dunes Club was unique this year. Close to one hundred twenty congregants and guests enjoyed a delicious kosher-for-Passover dinner with sumptuous desserts. The beautiful ocean view and the festive atmosphere just added to the spirituality of the evening.

Our next major holiday, Shavuot, which begins, G-d willing, Tuesday evening, June 11, celebrates the Giving of the Torah to the People of Israel.

The Torah and its teaching are so central to the existence of our people that I am doubtful if we would have survived for thousands of years without the inspiration of the Torah. I want to share with you a very inspiring story about our beloved Torah in honor of Shavuot.

Meaning of Sefer Torah:

There is a beautiful Yiddish story by the late Russian-American writer, David Einhorn, which sums up the meaning of the Sefer Torah and its place in Jewish life. In summary form, somewhere in Europe there were two small towns, one ruled by a tyrant who hated Jews and ordered all their holy books burned. Because the Jews loved the Torah so much, and they knew the Torah by heart, they kept studying and discussing it. To preserve the custom of reading the Torah each week in the synagogue, they prepared a scroll of the Torah of the finest parchment. In order not to disobey their ruler, they left the parchment blank, and the Torah reader, who was blind but who knew every word by heart, would take out the scroll each Shabbat morning and read as though it were a real Torah scroll before him.

Not far from this community was a town where Jews were given all the freedom and rights they could want. But, living in freedom, these Jews quickly forgot the Torah and lost interest in worship and stopped coming to the synagogue. Even on Shabbat, the synagogue would remain closed. Only on Yom Kippur did they come to the synagogue to hear the Torah read.

One Yom Kippur eve, the Cantor in the free town unlocked the synagogue and prepared it for services. Suddenly and magically, the doors of the Ark flew open, and a cloud rolled by with words and letters. The words flew out of the window and disappeared so that the Torah scroll was blank. The Torah reader cried out, "The Torah has forsaken us." From inside the Ark came an answer, "You have forsaken the Torah."

On Yom Kippur, when all the Jews gathered for the first time that year, the Sefer Torah was taken out of the Aron Kodesh, and the congregation saw that it was blank. At the very same moment, in the town where the Jews were oppressed, another miracle occurred. When the time came for the reading of the Torah, the Torah reader unrolled what he thought was a blank scroll, and a thick cloud of words and letters flew in through the window, spreading itself across the scroll, with each word and letter finding its proper place. At that moment, the blind Torah reader regained his eyesight. With deep joy, he began to read the miraculous words in front of him.

Some time later, the Jews from the oppressed town came to the free town and told them about the miracle of the words on the Scroll, and the Jews in the free town understood. The Jews in the free town decided to bring all the Jews in the oppressed town, together with their Sifray Torah, to their town, and together, they established a great school where both old and new residents studied the Torah together. And after a while, the whole city became known as a community of great Jewish scholars.

Many lessons can be learned from this beautiful story, and I will let each and every one of you come to your own conclusion. But one striking truth emerges from this story. It teaches us not to take our freedom of worship in America for granted. Let's not be like the free village that did not appreciate the gift of Torah.

Chag Sameach,
Rabbi Avi Perets

SISTERHOOD DOINGS JUNE / JULY 2024

Ahhh....Summertime! What comes to mind is warmer weather, short sleeves, sandals, bathing suits, sunscreen, and wet towels. This is a time for family reunions and vacations. Myrtle Beach is a busy vacation destination, but we locals know secret road shortcuts to avoid traffic, the best days and hours for shopping, and perfect times to go out to eat in order to avoid the masses. We hope everyone has an enjoyable, relaxing, and safe summer!

As always, our Mah- Jongg mavens, Marilyn Minkoff and Vita Friedman, ran a most successful tournament on May 15. The food was yummy, and all participants looked like they were having fun playing and talking to each other. Of course, none of this would have been possible without our amazing volunteers: Carol Seplow, Ann Seplow, Lynne Baronoff, Sharon Rubin, Susan Rossman, Mimi Eschbacher, Vivian Stevens, Roz Weinerman, Dori Schefflin, Isabel Pfeffer, Larry Kopelman, Rick Andrews, Mark Sloan, and Frank Palermo.

Todah Rabah to one and all!

We had a great turnout for the Sisterhood meeting held on May 19. During a light, but scrumptious breakfast, we voted on which New Year's card to use from the ones submitted by the Hebrew School students. Then, we got down to business and discussed new fundraising ideas, secured a chairwoman (Thank you, Bobbie Lipman!) for the New Year's card orders, discussed and promoted the Tchotchke Closet and Yard Sale, and presented the new Sisterhood slate for the next two years: Perri Sullivan and Eileen Gorelick as co-presidents, Susan Rossman and Shari Palermo as co-vice presidents, Marianne Levenson as treasurer, Marla Roth as recording secretary, and Roz Hanlon as corresponding secretary. The Sisterhood Board will meet in the summer to plan the calendar for next year. Thank you to everyone in attendance for your valuable input!

It is now time to start bringing in your items for the Yard Sale and Tchotchke Closet. Drop off items 10:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m., Monday- Friday. Carol Seplow and Vita Friedman will sort through the donations and put them in the appropriate places. Temple members and their guests are invited to shop in the Tchotchke Closet Monday - Friday, 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. All merchandise left after July 24 will be added to the Yard Sale. This is a major Sisterhood fundraiser. Please see the flyer for more information. If you can help, please contact Carol or Vita.

Sisterhood is looking for a few volunteers to help prepare Kiddushes. This entails dedicating one day a month (usually a Thursday or Friday) to prepare for a Saturday Kiddush. You would have a partner with you. Preparation takes about 1.5 hours or less. If you are interested, please contact Perri Sullivan.

As always...

Stay Safe! Stay Healthy!

Live! Laugh! Love!

B'Shalom,

Perri

Sponsoring a Kiddush is a beautiful way to honor the memory of a loved one or to honor a special occasion. The Kiddush will be prepared for you, and the cost is $125.

It is time to say goodbye for the summer. What a year! We were able to celebrate three B'nai Mitzvah: Ari Mosche, Jacob Battista, and Dylan Horn. Mazel Tov! The students studied Hebrew and Judaica with Rabbi Avi, Morah Chanah, and Morah Benay. In addition to classroom studies, everyone had a blast decorating the Sukkah, making Chanukah crafts, participating in a Tu B'Shevat Seder and planting herbs, making Mishloach Manot baskets for Purim, celebrating Passover with a Model Seder, and making New Year's cards. It has been a year full of learning and fun.

Thank you to all the parents for your support and sharing your children with us every Wednesday afternoon. It is greatly appreciated.

Have a wonderful summer and we will see you in the fall!
