Sukkot-- Z'man Simchateinu, the Season of our Rejoicing

Dear Friends,

Rosh Hashanah services were unique this year. They were influenced by the prolonged war in Israel and its global impact on Jews everywhere, as well as the tremendous increase in anti-Semitism in America and around the world. I have tried to convey the messages of unity of Am Yisrael and the need for each of us to support Israel and the Jewish cause at this crucial time, even more so than in any other year.

The services were spiritual, meaningful, and well-organized, and I would like to take a moment to thank countless people who helped in the preparation of these magnificent days. Rick and Mary Andrews, thank you for your involvement and assistance before the holidays, and for Mary Andrews' assistance and service coordination. Amy Alese, thank you for your fantastic work in preparing our Memorial Book with the help of Julian Koplen and Lynne Baronoff, and for your extra office assistance. Hugo Schiller for calling the shofar notes and your Yizkor assistance. Ken Levy, Paul Cohen, and David Fischer for blowing the shofar this year. Mark Sloan for assigning the aliyot. Mira, thank you for organizing the beautiful Selichot refreshments for the social hour. The Ritual Committee Members: Julian Koplen, Hugo Schiller, Roz and Alvin Weinerman, Danny Winkler, Harvey Pollack, Lenny Reznik, Marla Roth, Rick and Mary Andrews, Mark Sloan, Anne Peacock, Heather Concklin, and Amy Alese. Special thanks to Joyce and Allen Aaronson, Bobbie and Jeff Lipman, and Terry and Marianne Levenson for donating the flowers for the High Holidays. Mary Ann Allgood for polishing the silver, Dori and Steve Schefflin for organizing the challah and honey cake sale, Perri Sullivan for organizing snacks at the end of Yom Kippur services, Bobbie Lipman for your work on the New Year's card, Lynne Baronoff and Roz and Alvin Weinerman for preparing the Holiday Machzorim, and the Weinermans for providing the delicious apples and honey. The Carrillo family for landscaping and grounds keeping. Sonia Kahn and Jim Smith planted holiday flowers at our entrance. Mark Elliot for keeping us safe and secure. Finally, my dear wife Mira provided me with her support and inspiration, allowing me to dedicate my time to my Temple duties. In summary, the teamwork of many people helped us create an incredible religious experience for our Temple family. This level of involvement is unique to Temple Emanu-El, reflecting my vision of involvement and unity.

In October, we celebrate the holiday of Sukkot, which is one of my favorite holidays, and there are many good reasons for that. Immediately after Yom Kippur, Mira and I start building the Sukkah. The weather during this time of the year is delightful and gives some relief from the hot summer days. We do all that to fulfil a critical Mitzvah, the Mitzvah of the Sukkah. On this holiday of Sukkot, we are obligated, according to our religion, to live in a Sukkah, a booth. So, for seven days, my family and I sit and eat in the Sukkah; we pray, sing, and enjoy this wonderful holiday. We discuss the Jews of the desert generation, who lived in these booths for forty years, and it renews our sense of appreciation for God for all His blessings.

The festival of Sukkot is called Z'man Simchateinu, the Season of our Rejoicing, when we are called to step out of the security of our homes and dwell in the Sukkah—fragile walls open to the heavens above. This act reminds us that proper protection comes not from the strength of stone or wood, but from the sheltering presence of the Almighty.

Sukkot teaches us humility and gratitude. We wave the lulav and etrog in all directions, proclaiming that God's presence fills the world. We open our Sukkot to guests, both physical and spiritual, affirming that our joy is only complete when it is shared. And we give thanks for the bounty of the harvest, recognizing that all blessing flows from the Source of Life.

May this festival inspire us to cultivate joy, hospitality, and faith. As we dwell in temporary booths, may we be reminded of the eternal covenant that shelters us as a people. And may our Sukkot be filled with light, peace, and blessing.

With wishes for a Chag Sameach,

—Rabbi Avi Perets

Happy October,

Hebrew School Registration, Orientation, and Pizza Party was wonderful. We met some new students, discussed curriculum, shared ideas, and enjoyed delicious pizza.

One of the highlights of the afternoon was Morah Benay presenting Mirabel Bertrand with a $25 check for her beautiful design on this year's New Year's card. Sisterhood sponsors the card each year, and one talented student's design is picked for the cover.

Mazal Tov, Mirabel!!

Classes have begun, and our teachers and students are off to an exciting start; we look forward to an awesome school year.

Sisterhood Doings... October 2025

On September 10, Sisterhood hosted a Mah-Jongg tournament, and it was a smashing success! The house was at full capacity. Everyone was treated to breakfast, lunch, dessert, and snacks. A huge Todah Rabah to Vita Friedman and Roz Weinerman for organizing and executing this colossal event. Also, we send a big thank you to all the people who helped make this a success: Tina Abrams, Dolores Anshel, Lynne Baronoff, Benay Brockman, Heather Concklin, Mimi Eschbacher, Leilani Fallon-Gordon, Roz Hanlon, Sonia Kahn, Bobbie Lipman, Anne Peacock, Isabel Pfeffer, Sharon Rubin, Dori Schefflin, Carol Seplow, Sandy Stamer, Vivian Stevens, Laura Tolbert, Rick Andrews, Seth Clark, David Fischer, Larry Kopelman, Harvey Pollack, Mark Sloan, Al Weinerman, and Danny Winkler.

Bobbie Lipman, Marianne Levenson, and Amy Alese deserve a Todah Rabah for making sure we all got the lovely New Year's cards on time. Job well done, Ladies!

Dori Schefflin helped make our New Year even sweeter. She took the orders for the challahs and honey cakes and made sure they got to Benjamin's Bakery on time. With the help of Steve Schefflin, Dori distributed the goods at Temple. Todah Rabah!

The Attraction and Dining Coupon Books are here, and each one costs $25.00. They are chock-full of coupons to great restaurants and various attractions around Myrtle Beach. Giving one to someone is a great way to say "Thank you" or "Happy Holidays." These books are in the office, or, if you need more, contact Benay Brockman.

There will be a Sisterhood general meeting on Sunday, October 19 @ 10:0 a.m. in the Rosen Center. Please plan on attending. We will be discussing the calendar for the year. If you haven't paid your dues yet, you may do so at the meeting. We are an important arm of the Temple, and we want/need your involvement. Membership is open to all women belonging to Temple Emanu-El. For the $25.00 dues, you will get to experience a sense of community, be part of a collective voice, and widen your girlfriend friendship circle. Please see flyer for more information.

Todah Rabah to Jayne Barkman for spearheading and running our Pampered Chef online sales. We couldn't have done it without her. Also, thank you to everyone who participated. We successfully made money for Sisterhood.

B'Shalom,
Perri Sullivan

WE USHER IN YOM KIPPUR WITH KOL NIDRE
Wednesday, October 1 and Thursday, October 2

Yom Kippur, The Day of Atonement, also called the Sabbath of Sabbaths, is considered by many to be the holiest day of the Jewish New Year. It is a day in which tradition suggests that each person's record is received by G-d, and their worthiness appraised. We ask forgiveness for our sins and for our failings and pray for strength to improve in the future. It is also a time of fasting, prayer and solemnity, and opportunity for Jewish ritual to shape our identities and reshape our character. For many, the Yom Kippur holiday has woven into it the fabric of memory and nostalgia of earlier years. Yom Kippur is the one religious occasion that is observed almost in its entirety in the synagogue. The day, however, is preceded by a meal, which is intended to serve as a spiritual experience for the entire family. The meal is eaten early so that the family can be in the synagogue for the Kol Nidre service, which begins at 6:30pm.

Blessing for Candles: On Yom Kippur eve, the following blessing is recited: Barukh atah Adonai elohaynu melekh ha-olam, asher kidshanu bemitzvatov vetzivanu lehadlik ner shel Yom Ha'kippurim. Blessed art Thou, O Lord our God, King of the Universe, who has sanctified us by Thy Commandments and instructed us to kindle the Festival Lights. The Shahecheyanu is also said.

Blessing the Children: It is a beautiful tradition that before leaving for the synagogue for Kol Nidre, parents bless their children and wish them well in the year to come, to become good Jews and decent, moral human beings making their contributions to the community, to the Jewish people, and to mankind.

Memorial Yahrzeit Candle: It is customary to light a memorial yahrzeit candle on Kol Nidre Eve for dear departed in the family. The memorial yahrzeit candle must be lit before the holiday candles are lit.

Fasting on Yom Kippur: It is a Biblical law that mandates every Jew, unless ill, fast for the full day of Yom Kippur. Anyone who retains the most elementary sense of Jewish feeling will observe this day in fast. The reasons for fasting are numerous. These include the fact that it is one of the basic Biblical commandments as described in the Book of Leviticus. Fasting is a sign of contrition, the act of self-sacrifice, which shows that our remorse is more than lip service. We fast also because this act of self-discipline helps us to focus on what is spiritual in us, on the soul instead of the body and prepares us to face G-d in prayer and repentance, as we seek His forgiveness and blessing for life and health in the New Year. We also fast to help awaken within us the compassion to recognize a troubled humanity, that many live in hunger and need, and we do what we can for mankind. Children who are thirteen and have celebrated their Bar/Bat Mitzvah are required to fast. Children somewhat younger may be trained and educated to fast at least part of the day.

Synagogue Services: Members of the family spend a good deal of the twenty-five hours of Yom Kippur in the synagogue. The first service of the day, which is held on Wednesday evening, is the touching and memory-filled Kol Nidre service. Throughout the course of the following day, the congregation participates in the confession of sins, the hearing of the Torah, the challenging message of the prophetic readings from Isaiah, and the Yizkor service, and we conclude with the Musaf service. The Mincha service is followed by the Ne'ilah service, which is one of the most moving of holiday services. It features the entire congregation singing as one chorus, raising its voice in prayer to G-d on behalf of our individual well-being and the well-being of the entire community, using the metaphor that our prayers will be accepted before the Ne'ilah—closing the Heaven's gates. The Ne'ilah service is concluded with the blowing of the Shofar, heralding our hope for a year of health and peace for all mankind.

Break-the-Fast: Break-the-Fast will be at 7:35 PM this year.

Sukkot Services

Tuesday, October 7, at 10 AM

The Torah refers to the holiday of Sukkot as Chag Ha'assif - "gathering of the harvest". The Torah tells us (Leviticus 23:39-43), "On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered the fruits of the land, you shall keep the feast of the L-rd seven days... You shall dwell in booths (Sukkot) seven days."

There are two mitzvot unique to Sukkot. We eat our meals in the Sukkah, a temporary hut covered with branches. The Torah (Leviticus 23:42) tells us the reason for sitting in the Sukkah: "In booths [Sukkot] you shall dwell for seven days, so that your generations will know that I have made the children of Israel dwell in Sukkot when I brought them out of the land of Egypt." The word Sukkah means "shade." The Torah is referring to the clouds that G-d provided the children of Israel during the 40 years they were traveling through the Sinai desert. The clouds protected them from the heat of the sun. We remember this miracle by sitting in the Sukkah during this holiday. The second mitzvah unique to this holiday is reciting the blessing everyday (except on Shabbat) over the "Arbaa Minim" - "the Four Kinds": Etrog (citrus), Lulav (palm branch), Haddasim (3 myrtle branches) and Aravot (2 willow branches).

Please join us as we pray, shake the Lulav, and gather in our beautiful Sukkah for Kiddush.

Shemini Atzeret will be celebrated on
Tuesday, October 14, at 10 AM.
This service will include Yizkor.

All men, women, and children are invited to come sing, dance, and celebrate the joyous festival of Simchat Torah on Tuesday, October 14, at 7 PM! This is when we close the cycle of the Torah reading for the year, and then we begin again.
