

STORROW OVERDRIVE

Storrow Overdrive – Band Bio

Storrow Overdrive came together with one simple goal: to rock — and have a blast doing it. Based in the Greater Boston area, the band consists of seasoned musicians who bring decades of experience and a deep love for classic rock and blues to every performance. The lineup includes:

lead vocalist Jed Rosenbaum,
bassist Gary Multer,
drummer Adam Peabody,
guitarist/keyboardist Rick Roy,
lead guitarist Sam Fern,
and sound engineer Thom Roy.

Known for high-energy shows and dance-friendly setlists, Storrow Overdrive covers everything from The Cars to Bob Seger and all points in between. Whether it's a backyard bash or a festival stage, they deliver tight musicianship, good vibes, and a whole lot of fun.

As the mighty J. Geils Band (and fellow Bostonians) once said, "It ain't nothin' but a party!" So if you're ready to dance, forget your cares, and rock out for a night, Storrow Overdrive has you covered.
