

Meet your Mentor

Matthew Thayer

Top Network Marketing Professional

Matthew Thayer is a father, a mentor, and one of the highest-paid leaders in the network-marketing profession.

He's spent over a decade building teams across the world developing leaders, and showing people what's possible when vision, belief, and relentless consistency collide. Known for his authenticity and heart,

Matthew leads from experience—using his story, faith, and leadership to help people reshape their reality. His purpose is simple: help people win. Help them build wealth. Help them become the strongest version of themselves.