MEET OUR BOARD MEMBER

Kim Springer

Vice President

"I graduated from Superior High School and moved from the area in 2005. I was in Law Enforcement for about 12 years mainly in Baldwin City Kansas. When we moved back to the area I worked for DCF for a short time and then came to NCK CASA & Hope's Place. In December 2017 I became ED of NCK CASA. I left NCK CASA in 2022 to help my boyfriend Matthew Miller grow his business, Miller Ag Repair, where I am currently. Matthew and I live on his family homestead with his two girls Hailey age 11 and Kynsley age 9. I have three adult children who live in the area Kambree, Sterling and Brylee."
