MEET OUR BOARD MEMBER

Sarah Santos

Board Member

I grew up in Concordia and moved back ten years ago with my husband Chris. We have one son, Sylar, who is almost 7. We also have two dogs. Lolly and Eevee. I am a social worker. I worked in the adoption field for 14 years and now I work for Sunflower Health Plan as a Behavioral Health

Case Manager. I work with children who are on the Severely Emotionally Disturbed waiver. My husband and I also have opened a food truck this year called "The Kawali", meaning "The Frying Pan" in Tagalog (language of the Phillipines). We have enjoyed getting to expose the community to great Filipino food.

When did you become a Board Member?

I became a Board Member in November of 2023

Why did you become a Board Member?

I worked very closely with CASA during my time at Saint Francis and I saw how important their work is! I wanted to get involved and see CASA from a different view. I believe their dedication to at risk children is so important and needed!

What do you enjoy about being a Board Member?

I genuinely enjoy the staff that is employed by NCK CASA. I can tell they are truly dedicated to their jobs and serving such a vulnerable population.
