MEET OUR VOLUNTEERS

Cindy Kocher

11 years

How did you hear about the CASA Volunteer program?

"Had heard about CASA through Men in Tights activity. Knew CASA administrator."

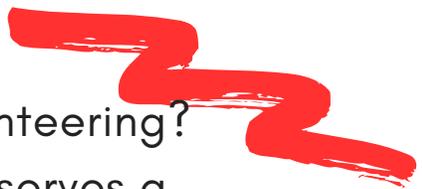

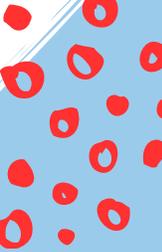

Why did you become a volunteer?

"I had recently retired from teaching. Wanted to give to my community. Have always been an advocate for all kids and families."

What is the most enjoyable part of being a volunteer?

"Knowing that I am providing the court with information that helps them make decisions that affect the kid--most important, most enjoyable is spending time with the kids getting to know them."

What would you like others to know about volunteering?
"Being a CASA is important and worthwhile. It serves a function that allows one to advocate for children and their families."
