MEET OUR BOARD MEMBER

Mary Thoman

Secretary

I worked for the Concordia School District for 40 years, primarily as a fourth grade teacher. Lowell, my husband, and I raised our two children on our farm. In retirement I enjoy helping out in my community and church in various capacities.

When did you become a board member?

"I became a Board Member of NCK CASA in January of 2020. I served as a CASA before that."

Why did you become a board member?

"I feel that my experience in education and as a former trained CASA could benefit the program. "

What do you enjoy about being a board member?

"The staff members at NCK CASA are working hard to strengthen the program. It is inspirational to see how the board and staff work together to continue to make a difference."
