At least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors shall be available in order to hold a telephone conference. The secretary shall list the members taking part in the conference and shall take a roll call vote to determine the results. A majority vote decides. The secretary shall immediately send the results of the conference to all members of the Board of Directors.
- 2 Mail Vote: The president shall direct the secretary to be responsible for drafting and sending out the ballots, tabulating the vote, and reporting the results to the members of the Board of Directors. A majority vote decides.
- 3 Duties of Appointed Officers:
 - A. Secretary: The Secretary shall keep an accurate record of all meetings of the MQHA and Board of Directors, preserve all papers, letters, and transactions of MQHA, keep an accurate record of names, addresses and Amateur status of all MQHA members, conduct correspondence for MQHA and be familiar with Bylaws and Standing Rules.
 - B. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall keep, or cause to be kept; an account of all monies received and expended for the use of the association, and be bonded as ordered by the Board of Directors. All sums received he/she shall deposit or cause to be deposited in the bank or banks or trust company approved by the Board of Directors, and shall make a report at the annual meeting or when called upon by the President. At the expiration of term of office, the treasurer shall deliver or cause to be delivered over to successor all books, monies and other property in a timely manner.
 - C. Point Keeper: The Point Keeper will compile an accurate computerized listing of horses earning points for year-end awards with standings current within ten (10) days after the receipt of show and race results, have year-end standings available within thirty (30) days of the last approved show or race, have accumulated point totals available for public perusal at every show following the first show of the calendar year, and issue a copy of updated totals to the MQHA Newsletter, and will posted on the MQHA website. Specific duties and responsibilities for this position will be defined by the Executive Committee.

D. The Racing Liaison Shall:

1. Submit all bills to the Board of Directors for approval.
2. Compile a yearly racing point listing of horses qualifying for MQHA year-end race awards. Results to be presented to the Board of Directors.
3. Extend a personal invitation to all award winners, inviting them to the year-end banquet.
4. Be responsible for submitting articles to the Racing Journal and the MQHA Association Reporter monthly.
5. Compile a list of horses and owners eligible after each payment date and mail to each owner as soon as possible after each payment date.
6. Separate the entry list by race, i.e., Charlie Russell Futurity along with entry fees and horses' names and owners. The Charlie Russell Derby will be a separate list of eligible horses, owners, and entry fees. Keep an ongoing account of the amount of money in each race and send that information along on the entry list to participating horsemen.
7. Deliver, before entry day, to the racing secretary at the race track holding the Charlie Russell Stakes Races:
 - a. A list of all eligible horses for the Charlie Russell Futurity as well as all funds collected for the race.
 - b. A list of all eligible horses for the Charlie Russell Derby as well as all funds collected for the race.
 - c. Assist the race meet secretary in utilizing the information provided.
8. Coordinate, along with the racing director, the awards presented to the winners of the Charlie Russell Futurity and Charlie Russell Derby.

- A. Suspension from AQHA automatically suspends a member from MQHA.
- B. A member having debts with the MQHA or one of its approved functions delinquent over ninety (90) days will be suspended from the Association, provided that written notice by certified mail of the account due and intention to suspend is delivered to the member.
- C. A suspended member may be reinstated with the approval of the Board, and is entitled to a hearing at the next scheduled Board of Directors' meeting following suspension.

6. Dues:

- A. Family, Individual, Partnership, Ranch, Race or any other entity dues are $40.00 (American funds) for the current year. Postmark will determine date dues are paid.
- B. Foundation Fund/Life memberships are $375.00.
- 1 Life memberships may be made on a payment schedule, payment terms of which are subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.
- 2 Annual dues are to be paid until life membership is paid in full.

7. Foundation:

- A. The fund will be invested in secure financial instruments that will guarantee a high level of safety while protecting the purchasing power of the original investment.
- B. The fund will be assigned to such financial institution(s) as directed by the Board of Directors. Each will be given leeway with its investments within the above guidelines and will provide the Board will quarterly reports.

I. YEAR-END AWARDS

- A. The point system for earning high point awards will be determined by the general membership.
 - 1 Desired changes to the current system must originate and be presented with recommendation for approval from their respective committee meetings (race or show) at the annual convention. These desired changes would then be presented for membership vote at the general convention meeting and voted on by voting members in attendance. Acceptance would require a majority vote of those members present and voting.
 - 2 The accepted systems will be printed in the Standing Rules.
 - 3 No system can be in direct conflict with any other provision of the MQHA Bylaws.

- B. In order to accumulate points for an annual high point award, it is the member's duty to annually submit to the MQHA Point Keeper a copy of the registration certificate of each horse which that member wishes to campaign toward an award and to purchase an annual/life number (show horses only) for each horse. Purchased lifetime back numbers are the ownership of the last owner of record shown on the official AQHA registration papers. A lifetime back may be relinquished by the owner of record and transferred to a family member who is an MQHA member in good standing for a transfer fee of $25 per back number.
- 1 The last owner (one or more) shown on the registration certificate of that horse must be an MQHA member in good standing and must have paid dues at the time of competition.
 - 2 The exhibitor of any horse being shown toward year-end awards must also be an MQHA member in good standing at the time of competition for any points to count.
 - 3 Should a horse competing for year-end awards be sold any time during the competition year, any/all Open rider points will continue to be accumulated toward year-end awards for that horse. Any/all Youth or Amateur Points will re-start accumulation from the date of sale forward.
 - 4 Dues must be paid in full before compilation of points count. Points will count from the date dues are paid, a MQHA annual/life number is purchased, and a copy of the registration papers is given to the Point Keeper.
 - 5 The MQHA membership must be listed the same as it appears on the AQHA registration certificate.
 - 6 Any discrepancy or dispute will be submitted to the Board of Directors for final determination.
- C. An Amateur or Select rider must designate the horse/rider team for which they wish to earn year-end points AND also the division they wish points to be counted in (Amateur or Select). It is the rider's responsibility to notify the MQHA Point Keeper of the division they choose to ride. An Amateur exhibitor who turns 50 years of age during the show season may choose to continue as an Amateur or opt out to become a Select exhibitor. In the event they choose to show as a Select exhibitor, year-end points will begin from the time they declare themselves to be a Select. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to notify the MQHA Point Keeper of their desire to change divisions.

II. YEAR-END CLASS AWARDS All MQHA approved shows to count during a show season (January 1 through December 31).

- A. Exhibitors must attend 50% of the shows to qualify for year-end awards with no minimum number of points required.
- B. Points from the top fifteen (15) shows will count for year-end totals.
- C. A High Point and Reserve will be awarded if a class is offered at least six (6) times during the year.
- D. If a class is not offered six (6) times during the year, only a High Point award will be given, and its value will be equivalent to a Reserve award. Horse with highest number of points will be declared a winner.
- E. In the event of a year-end awards tie for champion, both winners will receive an award and no reserve award will be given. In the event of a tie for reserve, both reserve winners will receive an award.
- F. The awards surcharge on all classes will be $1.00 per entry, per class, regardless of whether or not a class entry fee is charged. MQHA show approval remittance will be due to the MQHA Secretary/Point Keeper no later than 15 days after the last day of the circuit.
- G. An AQHA mandatory drug charge per horse per show will be charged and all monies from it sent to AQHA; exception Youth/Amateur Shows according to AQHA Rules and Regulations.
- H. Racing awards will be determined by points earned at AQHA approved tracks in Montana. A minimum of ten (10) points is required to be eligible to win a race award. Points do not count until dues are paid.
- I. All results will become final after thirty (30) days of publication of official final standings.
- J. MQHA approval charge is $65.00 for a show offering Open, Amateur, and Youth; Open and Amateur; or Open and Youth classes. The approval fee for a Youth or a Youth/Amateur show is $40.00. A check made payable to MQHA for the appropriate amount should accompany this application and must be paid 60 days prior to the first day of the show. Approval fees are nonrefundable.
- K. MQHA Year-End awards will ONLY be a choice of monogrammed merchandise offered by MQHA and chosen by the Awards Committee, no cash awards are allowed.
- L. MQHA Double Pointed shows: MQHA will allow each circuit that has fewer than 4 judges to have one show that is eligible to be double pointed. This show must be designated at the time that the show is submitted for MQHA approval. Double pointed shows allow the exhibitor to earn double point for that show, but do not count as a double judged show for year-end awards. Members still need to show to 6 judges annually to qualify for year-end awards.

I. BREEDERS' AWARD

AQHA rules state that the breeder of a horse is the owner or recorded lessee of the dam at the time of service.

MQHA will award the MQHA member(s) who qualify under the AQHA rules and meet all state requirements. Three (3) different categories will be used to give broader scope to the award and involve more MQHA members. An award will be given in each category – Halter, Performance, and Racing. The number of horses counting for the award will be limited to but not less than three (3) that were produced from a dam or dams owned by the breeder at the time of service. The award will be given for the produce which accumulated the most points in a minimum of three (3) MQHA approved shows during a show season (January 1 through December 31). Points to count in Open, Amateur, and Youth classes only. Level 1 classes are not included. A breeder must nominate his produce prior to October 1 of that year and provide copies of registration certificates verifying the above conditions to the MQHA secretary. In the event there are not three (3) produce of one breeder winning points in a calendar year, the award will not be given.

II. SIRE AWARD

A stallion owner is the owner or recorded lessee of the stallion at the time of service.

MQHA will award the MQHA member(s) who qualify under the AQHA rules and meet all state requirements. Three (3) different categories will be used to give broader scope to the award and involve more MQHA members. A MQHA Sire Award will be given in each category – Halter, Performance, and Racing. The number of horses counting for the award will be unlimited, but not less than three (3) that were sired by the nominated stallion. The award will be given to the get which accumulate the most MQHA points in all MQHA races/shows during the race/show season (January 1 to December 31). Points to count in Open, Amateur, and Youth. Level 1 classes are not included. A stallion owner will nominate sire's get to the MQHA secretary 60 days prior to the annual year end convention and provide copies of registration certificates and stallion breeder reports for the year the dam was bred, or a letter from AQHA as to where the stallion was standing when dam was bred. In the event there are not three (3) get of one stallion owner winning points in a calendar year, the award will not be given.

III. YEAR-END HIGH POINT AND ALL AROUND AWARDS

A. ALL AROUND AWARDS

1. Junior Horse (5 and under)
2. Senior Horse (6 and over)
3. Amateur Horse (1 horse, 1 rider)
4. Select Amateur Horse (1 horse, 1 rider)

These awards will be given to the horse that earned the most points in any three or more of the six AQHA performance categories; for Amateur, seven AQHA performance categories. Halter points will be counted and halter is considered one of the required categories. Three categories must have ten (10) points earned in each show. After qualifying in three categories, additional points earned in all categories will also be counted. Points from the top fifteen (15) shows in each class will be used. A Reserve All Around will be given subject to the same guidelines.

B. LEVEL 1 AMATEUR HIGH POINT award will be given to one horse-one rider accumulating the highest total of points over the show year. A Reserve Level 1 Amateur High Point will be given, subject to the same guidelines.

C. ROOKIE AMATEUR HIGH POINT award will be given to one horse/one rider accumulating the highest total of points over the show year. A Reserve Rookie Amateur High Point award will be given, subject to the same guidelines.

IV. MQHA RANCH BROODMARE SIRE AWARD

One of MQHA's goals is to promote stallions that are cow horse bred and have daughters that are producing foals that excel in cow horse events whether it be in the show ring or on the ranch. Each application will be given credit for grand-get that have winnings in any of the cow horse events: cutting, reined cow horse, working cow horse, or roping events. Credit will also be awarded if the horse is ranch ridden.

- 1 The owner must be a member of AQHA and MQHA.
- 2 The stallion must be registered with AQHA as well as all offspring and grand-get.
- 3 The stallion must stand in Montana and must have a minimum of five (5) producing daughters. Each daughter must have produced at least one (1) foal.
- 4 The stallion must have a minimum of ten (10) grand-get, and must have at least one (1) grand-get ranch ridden. If your stallion meets the above requirements, send in a written entry including the names of the owner, stallion, producing daughters, and grand-get and their registration numbers. Entries must be postmarked by October 1 of the current year. Send entries to the MQHA Secretary.

V.SPECIAL RECOGNITION AWARDS

- A. OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES PROGRAM (OAP): This award recognizes American Quarter Horses used in activities outside of MQHA approved shows, races, and contests.
