REMEMBERING OUR MEMBERS GONE

Jack Baumgardner To know Jack was to love Jack. Jack's whole world was the love of his life, Rita Mae, to whom he was married 67 years; his sister, Darlene; his kids, John (Shelly), Vicki (Dave) Klimek, Joe (Traci); grandkids, Chelsea (Britton), Zach (Alli), Sara, Alexi; and great grandkids, Camden and Baker. He couldn't have loved them any more and he didn't need to say it. You just knew, without a doubt. He was so proud of his family. A true patriarch he was, not because he demanded it but because he led by example and you couldn't help but want to be more like him. Jack was the salt of the Earth and displayed remarkable strength throughout his illness and to his very last, peaceful breath. We could all take a lesson from the book of Jack's life; live fully, love unconditionally, honor fiercely, and embody loyalty, humor, work ethic, and honesty. Jack called it like he saw it and we all loved him for it! He was loved by all who knew him from the ladies at the horse shows to the customers at Jack's Masonry. Jack was preceded in death by his parents, Jacob and Katie Baumgardner, and his brother, Jim. Jack will be buried at the Veteran's Cemetery where he will overlook the beautiful Equestrian Park that he was so instrumental in creating. If you were lucky enough to love him, know him, or have a brief encounter with him...raise a glass of Jack Daniels to the Man, the Myth, the Legend. Jack Baumgardner was one of a kind.

Ed Lamb

It is with sad remembrance that we celebrate the lives of Ed Lamb and Robin Allaire. Both former MQHA members, sometimes active within their lives. Our condolences to their families. A memorial for Ed and Joanne Lamb is tentatively being planned for May 21 at 1 pm at the Moore Womens Center. We are sending our deepest condolences out to Debbie Lamb on the loss of her dad, longtime Montana Quarter Horse Association member, Ed Lamb who passed away on April 16. Ed was from Lewistown and was instrumental in promoting true horsemanship in the state with his varied knowledge and kind guidance. He was honest to a fault, a true friend to many, and a man of kind words. A better man will be hard to find. We also lost another member, Robin Allaire. All three of her daughters, Beth, Martha and Cate showed during their youth. Robin's interest never waned throughout her life and you would find her at all the Great Falls shows watching and visiting horses for hours. She loved all animals, travel, but especially her family. You are all in our thoughts and prayers as you continue in life without these incredible individuals.
