

Service Volunteers

September 3		September 10
Greeters:	Mary Rose Gathman* Marilyn Clardy-Haislip	Greeters:	Polly Swindoll* Marilyn Clardy-Haislip
Lay Welcomer:	Charlene Fetterly*	Lay Welcomer:	Rhett Bush*
Lay Readers:	Julie Dangler* Caitlin Daley	Lay Readers:	Diane Head* Marilyn Clardy-Haislip
Media:	Dale Dangler, Jeff Knox* Harrison & Carson Daley	Media:	Dale Dangler, Jeff Knox* Harrison & Carson Daley
Nursery:	Deb Lizzi* Elizabeth Lawson	Nursery:	Meg Edwards* Judy Daughtridge
Ushers:	Ian Daley, Grant Galloway	Ushers:	Ian Daley, Grant Galloway

* Contemporary Service — ** Traditional Service

Announcements

- A brand-new Children’s Fellowship and dinner will start on Tuesday, September 5 from 6:00-7:30. All children 5th grade and younger are invited to join us. The children will choose a name for their new group. We will have time for a Bible story activity and/or service, other activities, and free play. We need adults to assist with leadership. Parents are invited for dinner on September 5. For more information, contact Deana. deana@easleyfumc.org
- September 10 is Missions Day here at EFUMC
*We will be collecting monetary donations for the Epworth Children’s Home Work Day Offering on September 10. There will be special offering envelopes in the bulletins for you to use for this offering. Please make your checks out to Epworth Children’s Home.
*We will also be collecting food and school supply items for Gettys Middle School on September 10 to give to students in need. The current needs are: packs of crackers, granola bars, individually wrapped snacks, backpacks, and headphones or ear buds. The backpacks, headphones, and ear buds can be purchased inexpensively at the Dollar Tree and Five Below stores here in Easley. Food items can be purchased at your favorite grocery store.
- Do you like to read? Want to share books with others? On September 13, Samantha Jones will be speaking about The Open Book Project at the United Women of Faith Meeting at 10:30 in the Fellowship Hall. The Open Book Project is a non-profit organization whose mission is to raise literacy awareness while inspiring the love of reading across the upstate of SC. Please join us for this meeting to hear more about this organization. Books are being collected in the church office and in the narthex for their book sale on October 12-14 in our gym. Details to come about the sale.
- Confirmation Classes for youth will start Sunday, Sept 17. If you are 6th grade or older and have not completed Confirmation, please contact Deana for more information. deana@easleyfumc.org

Service Volunteers

September 3		September 10
Greeters:	Mary Rose Gathman* Marilyn Clardy-Haislip	Greeters:	Polly Swindoll* Marilyn Clardy-Haislip
Lay Welcomer:	Charlene Fetterly*	Lay Welcomer:	Rhett Bush*
Lay Readers:	Julie Dangler* Caitlin Daley	Lay Readers:	Diane Head* Marilyn Clardy-Haislip
Media:	Dale Dangler, Jeff Knox* Harrison & Carson Daley	Media:	Dale Dangler, Jeff Knox* Harrison & Carson Daley
Nursery:	Deb Lizzi* Elizabeth Lawson	Nursery:	Meg Edwards* Judy Daughtridge
Ushers:	Ian Daley, Grant Galloway	Ushers:	Ian Daley, Grant Galloway

* Contemporary Service — ** Traditional Service

Announcements

- A brand-new Children’s Fellowship and dinner will start on Tuesday, September 5 from 6:00-7:30. All children 5th grade and younger are invited to join us. The children will choose a name for their new group. We will have time for a Bible story activity and/or service, other activities, and free play. We need adults to assist with leadership. Parents are invited for dinner on September 5. For more information, contact Deana. deana@easleyfumc.org
- September 10 is Missions Day here at EFUMC
*We will be collecting monetary donations for the Epworth Children’s Home Work Day Offering on September 10. There will be special offering envelopes in the bulletins for you to use. Please make your checks out to Epworth Children’s Home.
*We will also be collecting food and school supply items for Gettys Middle School on September 10 to give to students in need. The current needs are: packs of crackers, granola bars, individually wrapped snacks, backpacks, and headphones or ear buds. The backpacks, headphones, and ear buds can be purchased inexpensively at the Dollar Tree and Five Below stores here in Easley. Food items can be purchased at your favorite grocery store.
- Do you like to read? Want to share books with others? On September 13, Samantha Jones will be speaking about The Open Book Project at the United Women of Faith Meeting at 10:30 in the Fellowship Hall. The Open Book Project is a non-profit organization whose mission is to raise literacy awareness while inspiring the love of reading across the upstate of SC. Please join us for this meeting to hear more about this organization. Books are being collected in the church office and in the narthex for their book sale on October 12-14 in our gym. Details to come about the sale.
- Confirmation Classes for youth will start Sunday, Sept 17. If you are 6th grade or older and have not completed Confirmation, please contact Deana for more information. deana@easleyfumc.org