Announcements

- Today is Graduate Recognition Sunday! We will be recognizing our graduates in the 11:00 am worship service. Join us in congratulating them on their achievements!
- Church Wide Yard Sale Saturday, May 17. Gently used items to be donated can be brought to the Craft Room beside the Curiosity Shoppe. (no clothes or books, please). Details about how to help with the sale will be announced soon.
- Help out with worship! For both the 8:45 and 11:00 worship services, our worship teams are looking for assistants in the Audio/Video Booth in the balcony. No musical ability or experience is necessary, you can learn everything you need. You can do it! Contact Pastor Michael or the Church Office to find out how to get started.
- Ingles gift cards available on Sundays! Cards are available in the Fellowship Hall from 9:45 to 10:45 am each Sunday morning. They will continue to be available in the church office during regular office hours. Cards are in $50.00 and $100.00 increments. The church earns 5% of the face value of the card.

Our Graduates

Dorothy Hood is graduating from the South Carolina Governor's School for Science and Math, a residential high school in Hartsville, SC. After graduation, Dori will attend Wofford College in Spartanburg, and she plans to major in Art and Environmental Science. Dori is the daughter of Michael and Alison Hood, and the sister of Eli, Felix, and Lucy Hood.

Zane McCord graduated from high school in December and is attending Tri-County Tech now to be a lineman. He will graduate in May with his degree and then will travel to Iceland to go on a hiking excursion with his uncle for two weeks as well as visiting New York City. He hopes to have a full-time job when he returns working as a lineman and will also work toward getting his CDL certification.

Kara Boyles graduated in December from Clemson where she finished her masters in Education. She will continue teaching English at Easley High School.
