One of the saddest sights of the Christmas season are trees sitting out on the curb on December 26. At the very moment when the Christmas season truly begins, too many people seem ready to bring it to an early end. If not on December 26, when should you take down your Christmas tree and decorations down.?

Father Francis
Lil'O Corner

The Traditional Answer: Catholics do not take down their Christmas trees and holiday decorations until the day after Epiphany. The 12 days of Christmas begin on Christmas Day and the 12 days of Christmas end on Epiphany, the day that the three wise men came to pay homage to the child Jesus. We tend to choose the commercialism route versus the religious route because we have lost our way and forgotten the days of old. The Feast of the Epiphany invites us to consider once again the real meaning of Christmas and to respond accordingly. The wise men, in presenting Jesus with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, acknowledged him as Saviour of all people meaning all of us. The feast invites us to ask: what gift can we present to Jesus that acknowledges him as our Saviour? One way is to respect Jesus during the Christmas season is to honor Him according to tradition when all the meaning of Christmas comes to pass ending with Epiphany Sunday.

Cutting the Christmas Season Short: By the time Christmas Day comes, people are ready to pack up the decorations, and the tree—which they may have put up as early as Thanksgiving weekend. People have forgotten what the "Christmas season" means really means. The desire of commercialism is to encourage Christmas shoppers to buy early and buy often, and affect the liturgical seasons of Advent and Christmas. Christmas advertising starts right after Halloween. And because of that, the actual Christmas season has been forgotten.

Celebrate Advent So We Can Celebrate Christmas. If you choose to revive the true meaning tradition of putting up your Christmas tree and decorations closer to Christmas Day itself, then your tree should remain until Epiphany. More importantly, you could begin to distinguish once again between the Advent season and the Christmas season. This would allow you to celebrate Advent to its fullest. In keeping your decorations up after Christmas Day, you will find a renewed sense of joy in celebrating all twelve days of Christmas leading to the Epiphany.

The early Church clearly understood this missionary mandate of Jesus Christ, and then the Holy Spirit propelled those who knew Jesus to go out, teach, and make disciples; in short, to spread the Good News to the ends of the world. The Church, today, must continue to respond to this missionary call. So we need to ask ourselves, "What can we do to fulfill the Church's mission?"

One relatively easy first step is to renew our own faith -- both in our heads and our hearts. Ongoing faith formation is essential to accomplish the Church's mission and is a lifelong process. So let us make a resolution in this new year to deepen our knowledge of the Catholic faith by educating ourselves on what the Church teaches and why. When we strengthen our knowledge of our faith, we begin to be transformed by it.

So what are some practical ways we can increase our knowledge of the Catholic faith? Here are some possibilities:

- Read daily Scripture and reflect on its meaning.
- Read the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which covers the beliefs, moral teachings, prayer, and sacraments of the Catholic Church.
- Read about the lives of the saints who are timeless examples of how to live a Christian life.
- Resolve to take part in or organize a Bible study.
- Participate in RCIA (it's not just for non-Catholics).
- Join a small community of faith surrounded by others who are also seeking to grow in their understanding of Church doctrine.
- Talk to a member of the Evangelization Team about these and other possibilities.

Remember, evangelization is not the task of a few people; it is the responsibility of the whole Church. It is a call to each person to deepen his or her own faith and possess a willingness to share the Good News with others.

PARISH REFLECTIONS 4A

The Feast of the Epiphany is a special day in Mexico. Known as 'El Dia de Reyes' (Three Kings Day), and represents the height of the Christmas season. The date marks the end of the twelve days of Christmas and honors the three wise men. The children in particular look forward to this holiday as traditionally, gifts are exchanged on this date, not on Christmas day. It is the three wise men who are the bearers of gifts, who leave presents in or near the shoes of small children.

The most notable being the appearance of the Star of Bethlehem. This new star appeared in the evening sky just prior to the arrival of Jesus. Three wise men whose names were Gaspar, Melchior and Balthasar, traveled a far distance to pay homage to the Christ child. They brought with them fine gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Three Kings Day remains an important holiday for the people of Mexico. In addition to the gift-giving aspect of the day there is also a culinary treat that is specific to the holiday. Known as 'Rosca de Reyes' (King's Cake), this holiday dessert offers much in the way of symbolism. Shaped in the round to signify a king's crown, this sweet bread holds a special surprise. Baked inside is a small plastic figurine representing the baby Jesus. Whoever finds this token is obligated to host an upcoming party for the occasion of 'Dia de la Candelaria' (Candlemas Day) which occurs each year on February 2.

The figure of the baby Jesus, hidden inside the cake, represents another aspect of the holiday. The reason Jesus is 'hidden' inside the bread is to symbolize how in life, the Christ child's birth location also needed to remain secret, in order that his life be spared. The ruler of Jerusalem at the time, King Herod, had been appraised of the mystical signs that indicated the new and rightful King.
