Final Resting Place: What to Do With the Body?

An explanation of restrictions on Catholic burial and cremation. After you die, you'd like your body to be: (choose one):

1. Cremated, then shot into space in a time capsule;
2. Cremated, then embedded in your loved one's skin as a commemorative tattoo;
3. Turned into human compost and grown into a tree;
4. Stored in a decorative urn on the mantel;
5. Cremated, sealed into pendants, then divided among family members;
6. Cremated, then scattered over the water in Disney World's "It's a Small World" ride;
7. Embalmed, then interred in a plot in a Catholic cemetery;
8. Cremated, sealed in an urn, then buried in a cemetery.

Catholics Have only Two Options: If you're a Catholic, the only correct choices from the above list are Options #7 and #8. Other, more novel dispositions of bodily cremains are forbidden. Throughout the centuries, the Catholic Church has expressed respect for the human body—and reinforced Church teaching regarding the resurrection of the body—by requiring that the deceased be buried. In 1963, the Pope lifted the ban on cremation. Canon law approves cremation. In August 2016, the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the faith, responding to emergent fads regarding disposition of ashes, issued an Instruction regarding the burial of the deceased and the conservation of the ashes in the case of cremation.

The ashes of the departed are put in a sacred place and ensures that they are not excluded from the prayers and remembrance of their family or the Christian community. It prevents the faithful departed from being forgotten, or their remains from being shown a lack of respect, which eventuality is possible, most especially once the immediate subsequent generation has too passed away. Also it prevents any unfitting or superstitious practices. For the reasons given above, the ashes of the departed in a domestic residence is not permitted.

Ashes may not be divided among various family members and due respect must be maintained. It is not permitted to scatter the ashes of the faithful departed in the air, on land, at sea or in some other way, nor may they be preserved in mementos, pieces of jewelry or other objects.

CHILLIN SOUPER BOWL SUNDAY FEBRUARY 3, 2019

Thank you to everyone who helped to make our soup dinner a success. It was a great afternoon of community fellowship. A special thanks to Butt's Meat Market for the special cost of beef for the chili.

PARISH CLUSTER NEWS

News Update

Knights of Columbus will meet on Wednesday, February 13th at 7:00 pm in the Lost Nation Hall. Join us and experience the joy of charity, unity, and fraternity.

FLU ALERT: The most important preventative measures include vaccination, cough hygiene (covering appropriately), and good hand washing. Please stay home if you are ill. If you do come to Mass, please refrain from shaking hands or sharing in the chalice. Likewise, those who are prone to infections (for example those who are older or are taking medications that suppress the immune system, or are pregnant) should also refrain from shaking hands or sharing the chalice. The Sign of Peace does not require the shaking of hands; parishioners may acknowledge each other with a nod.

MARRIAGE ANNULMENTS QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Come to an Open Forum on Marriage, Divorce and Annulment presented by our Tribunal staff at 7:00pm on Thursday, February 28th in the parish hall. Bring your questions and learn what our Church teaches about marriage, divorce, and the healing ministry of annulment. No reservation required. Questions? Call Beth Blough, Tribunal Auditor, 563-888-4236.

Gentle Woman

Gentle woman, quiet light
Morning star, so strong and bright,
gentle Mother, peaceful dove,
teach us wisdom; teach us love.

You were chosen by the Father;
You were chosen for the Son.
You were chosen from all women
and for women, shining one.

Gentle woman, quiet light
Morning star, so strong and bright,
gentle Mother, peaceful dove,
teach us wisdom; teach us love.

Blessed are you among women,
blest in turn, all women, too.
Blessed they with peaceful spirits.
Blessed they with gentle hearts.

Gentle woman, quiet light
Morning star, so strong and bright,
gentle Mother, peaceful dove,
teach us wisdom; teach us love.
