AN INSIDER'S LOOK AT SEMINARY FORMATION

A real sense of formation rejuvenation and nostalgia came upon me as I joined the archbishop of my home archdiocese of Cape Coast, Charles G. Palmer-Buckle, the priests, and seminarians to celebrate Mass on 1st October, as part of the events marking the 90th anniversary of the seminary where the seed of formation to the priesthood was sown in me.

As I can recall, more than thirty years ago, I used to sit in the rustic chapel of the seminary to pray and discern my vocation. The priesthood I'm enjoying now in a stunning manner is linked to the years of prayers, rosaries, and Masses I experienced on the holy grounds of St. Teresa's seminary.

The highlights of the anniversary included the ordination of 15 young men to the priesthood. One of the episodic moments of my visit was the participation in the 90th anniversary. It was back to the basics! It was a homecoming; I reconnected with the nurturing environment of my calling. A few pictures of the events.
