

John Wise

"Music that takes you back - But doesn't leave you there!"

Mini Bio

John blends strong vocals and heartfelt piano with elements of rock and gospel, creating performances that uplift and inspire. His influences include Elton John, Billy Joel, Keith Green, Chuck Mangione, Southern Gospel, and Motown. He spent several years playing horn-based rock (Earth, Wind, and Fire; Blood, Sweat and Tears) in Central Pennsylvania with Cliff Turner and the Afterburners, and acted as the musical director for The Hounds of Soul and The Gill Street Band. He currently performs in Western New York with The Nitetones, John Wise and Friends, and A Band Called Hope, and is available for solo/small group experiences.
