Coach Pitch (7-8)

1. All pitches will be delivered from a coach pitcher, from a distance of no less than 40 feet.
2. All teams shall list every available player for that game in the batting order. Every player will bat in rotation. Once the line up is turned into the opposing team scorekeeper, any player who shows up late will be placed at the end of the batting order.
Exception: No team will have to bat more than 12 batters in the lineup
Example: Team A has 11 players show up for the game
Team B has 14 players show up for the game.
Team A will bat all their players in rotation.
Team B will bat 12 players in rotation and have 2 substitute batters that must be entered into the batting lineup
3. The nine (9) batter rule will be in effect. When the ninth batter comes to bat, the game situation will be declared as follows: there will be 2 outs, regardless of the actual number of outs. The inning will end when the third out is made or the ninth batter scores.
4. Each batter will receive up to 5 pitches per turn at bat. If 3 strikes occur before 5 pitches, the batter is out. A foul ball will no count as strike 3 or the fifth pitch

11. There will not be an infield fly ball rule used in this league.

12. Time-Outs: time outs will be called by the umpire when; (a) the lead runner has stopped his momentum when advancing to the next base. (b) when in the umpire's opinion the ball is in the infield and normal baseball play has stopped. (c) the ball has reached the home plate area (after the lead runner has advanced to the next base) the catcher does not have to have possession of the ball. Note: a fielder holding the ball while a runner is advancing to the next base or the fielder throwing the ball to the pitcher does not constitute a time out.
