

Festivals: The annual Log House Arts Festival and Holly Bazaar provide income for area and regional Craftsmen and Artists: 180 Craftsmen earn over $200,000. In addition, ARToberFEST offers free artistic experiences for 800+ local children and youth.

Exhibitions: 9 Annual Exhibits in the Goldhaber-Fend Fine Arts Center Gallery showcase artwork of local, regional and national artists, including the annual Greater Johnstown Young Artists Exhibit, Allied Artists Summer Show, & Greater Johnstown Camera Club. Permanent museums and galleries include the Ponas Doll Museum, Shirley Gaynor Collection, and M. Josephine Paul Family Museum.

Free Music Series: Concerts-on-the-Green (Summer) and Coffee House Series (Spring/Summer).

Art Scholarship Program: $79,350 in scholarships has been awarded over 55 years.

Outbound Art Outreach Program: 20,000+ children in need have been served over 38 years through the Serving Underserved initiative. Outbound Art also serves the community by providing artistic opportunities for senior citizens (Young at ART), deaf & hard of hearing (Language of Art), blind & visually impaired (Insightful Art), those with mental health concerns (Instrumental Art), and overall physical health & mobility (Arts4Wellness). Additional offerings include artist lectures, demos, and exhibition tours for groups and schools, supported by PA EITC Funding.
