Fantasy drawings and paintings by Koa Beam

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Koa Beam is a local graphic artist and illustrator who grew up here in Johnstown area and lives not to far from the community arts center. A life long self-proclaimed nerd and geek, he is best known for his pop culture, fantasy, sci-fi, and comic book story-related artworks. Koa also donates his time and knowledge to the Community Arts Center of Cambria County by volunteering, teaching classes, giving talks on his process and art style, and even lending his amateur acting talents to the Art's Center's Log Art Theatre productions on occasion. The art show titled "Deities & Demigods, Legends & Lore" marks Koa's third gallery offering to be showcased at the Goldhaber-Fend Fine Arts Center. This current collection of artwork is Koa's attempt to share his love of timeless lore, and mythology that date back to our earliest cultures and yet manage to stand the test of time. Koa invites you to take a journey in mystery with him of these epic tales told throughout history, that teach us, warn us, and inspire us. These fantastic stories have sparked awe and wonder in our minds for millennia. So, join us as Koa opens up his window to the realms of legend filled with gods, monsters, heroes, and yes, even superheroes.
